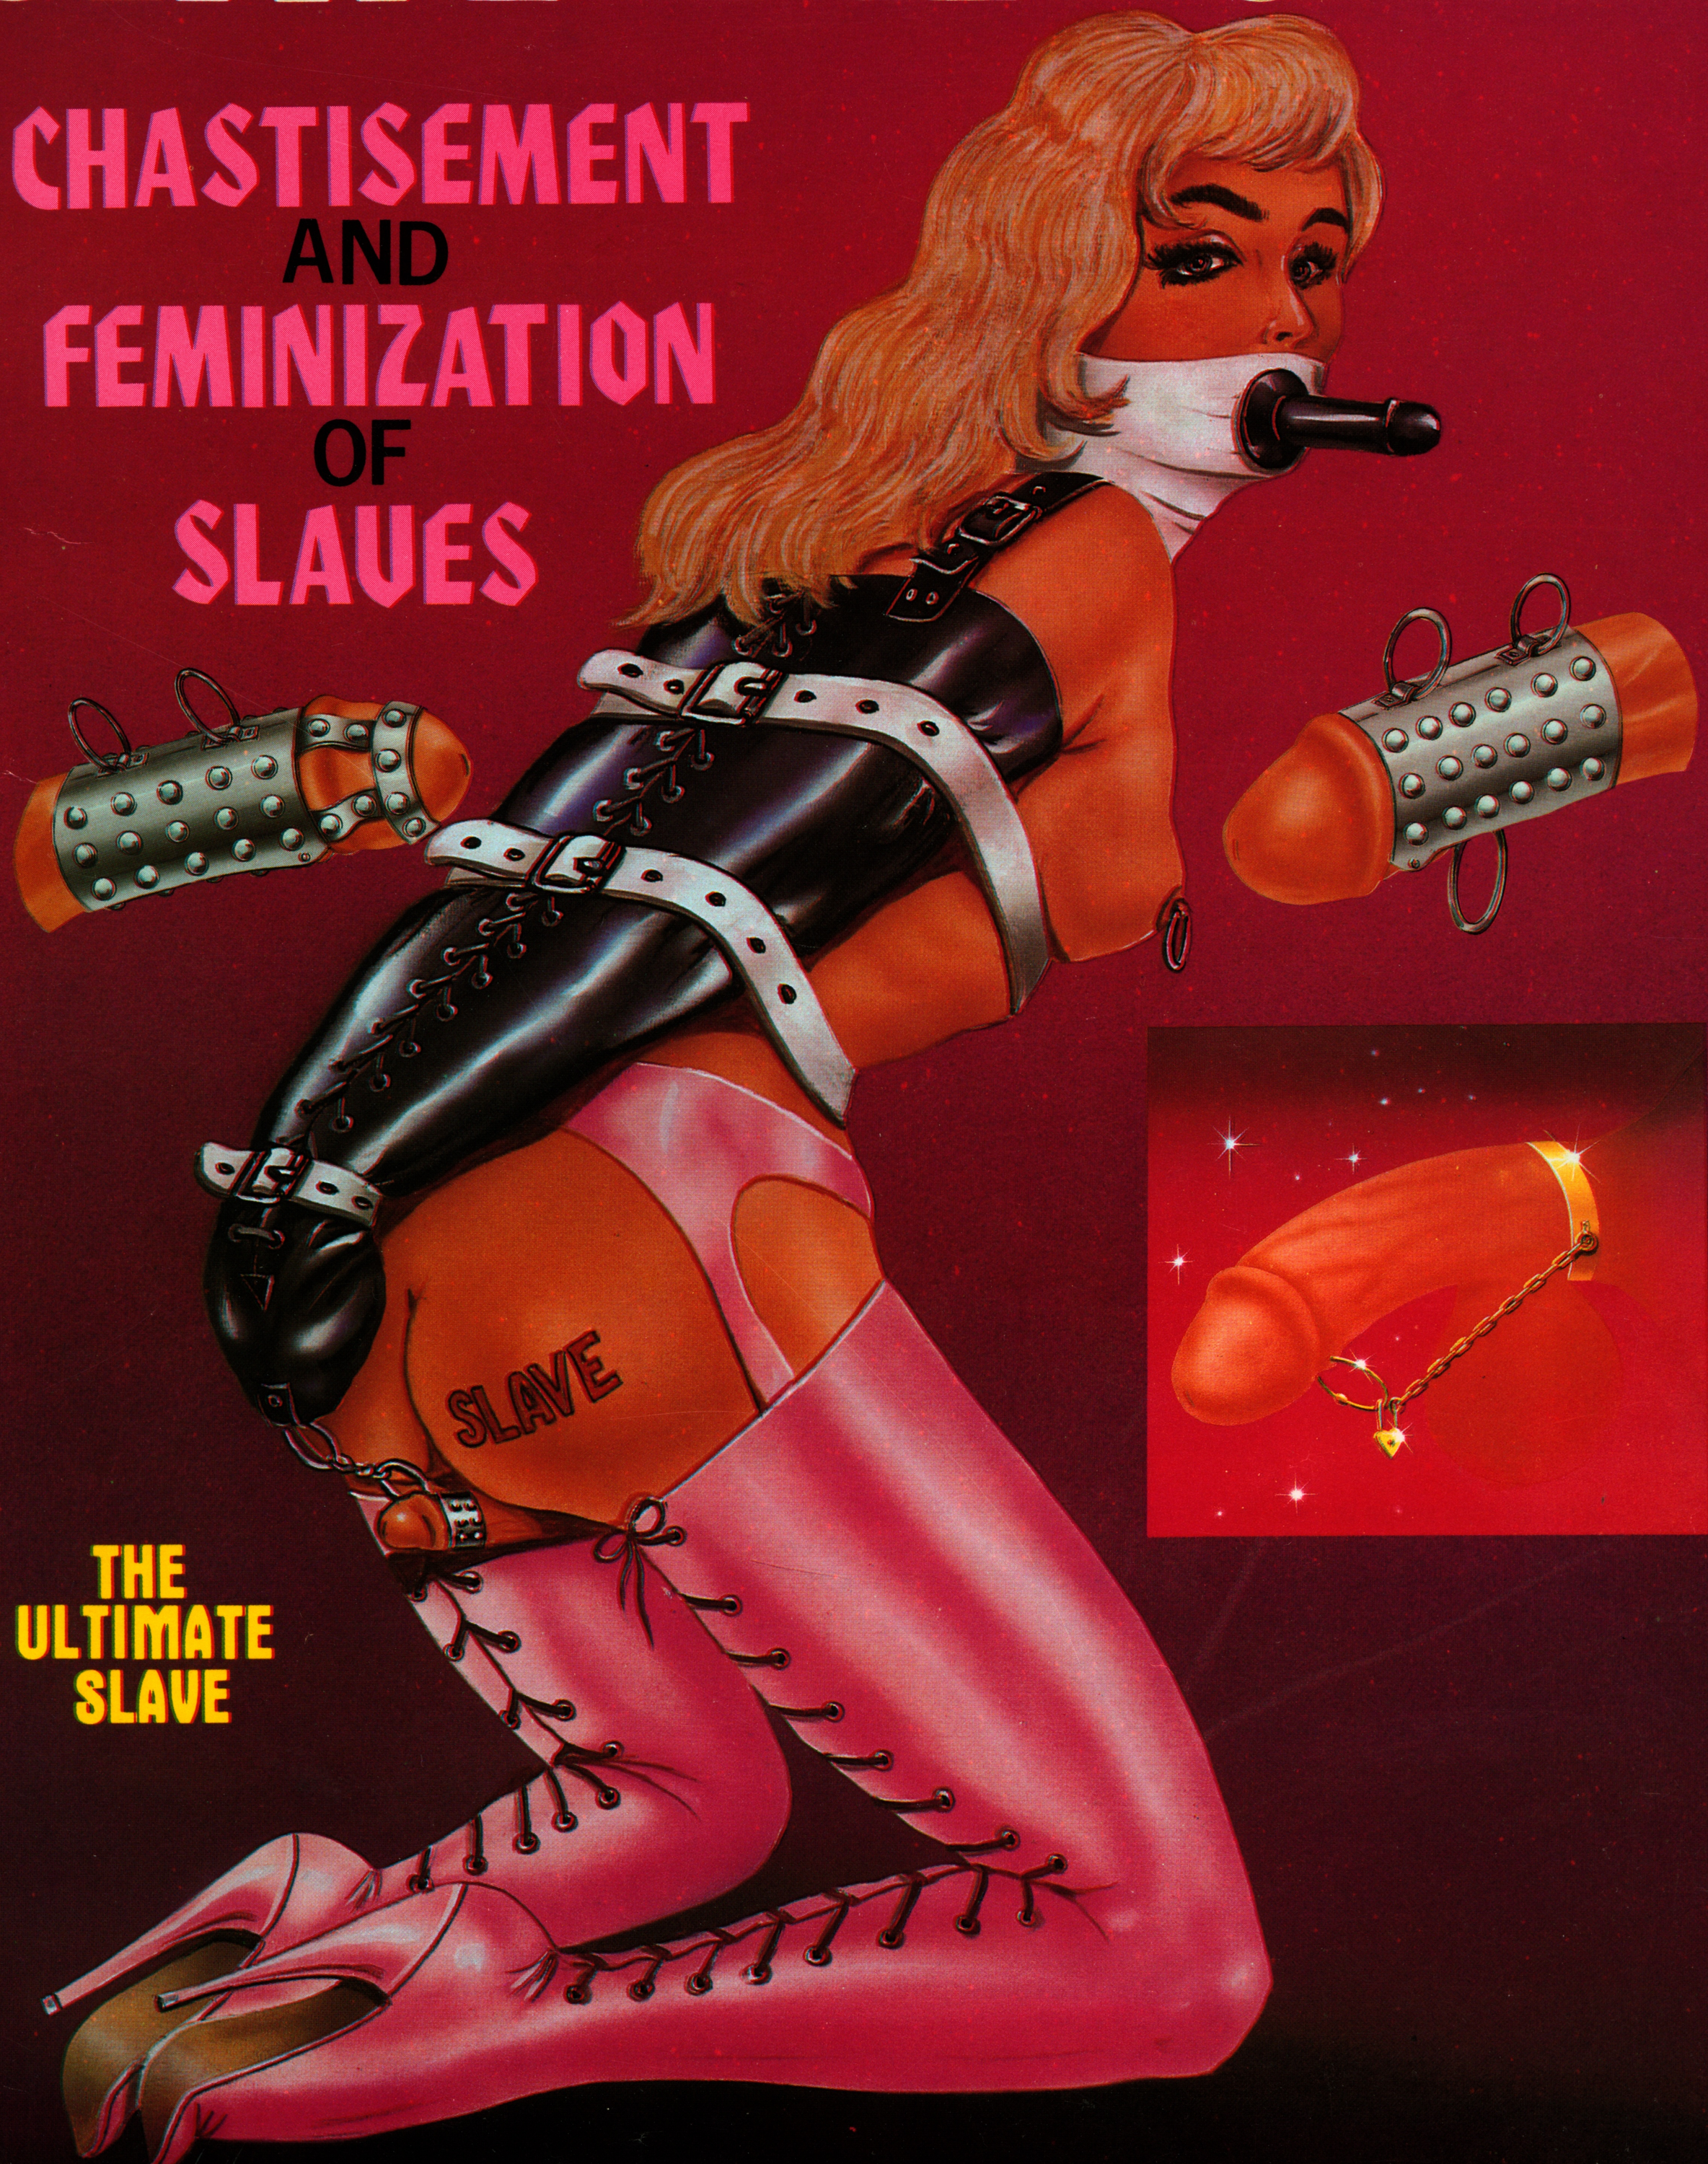
SLAVE PIERCING

CHASTISEMENT AND FEMINIZATION OF SLAVES



THE ULTIMATE SLAVE

SLAVE PIERCING

FORWARD

A lot of this issue is devoted to actual slavery and chastisement of male and female slaves. I must add here, that slavery is only done when there is deep love and devotion to each other. The kind of slavery we talk of is a loving sexual slavery. A love so deep on the slaves part that he or she is willing to become a real sexual slave to the one he or she loves. And as the master, he or she loves and wants to possess their partner so bad that he or she wants the individual to be a slave to him or her for life.

We received so many letters from both men and women about our first issue and questions relating to piercing for slavery that we thought it necessary to make this magazine a continuing publication. Please send us photos of mistress and slave and your stories for our next issue.

For this issue we created some new chastity devices which when you purchase we will also forward the address and phone number of the best piercer in the world.

Pierced Body Jewelry

Part of an article from a recent Nugget Magizine.

People have been adorning their bodies since the Stone Age and now the wearing of erotic pierced body jewelry is becoming more popular than ever before.

BY MICHAEL BAIR

Human beings have pierced parts of their bodies and adorned them with jewelry for thousands of years. Ancient man wore primitive bone rings through pierced ears. Women in Borneo wore beaded rings through their labia. Some still do.

A tribe of primitives in the Philippines still pierce their ears and wear woven fibre jewelry embellished with dried berries. Throughout the centuries the peoples of Asia, Africa, Europe, South America and the Pacific Islands have practiced body piercing. It is a practice which has its origins pre-dating the Stone Age and it persists to this day.

Body piercing has always been associated with sexual beauty and eroticism. It is done for no other reason. It is man's oldest means of expressing sexuality and in making an erotic exhibitionistic public display.

But it is not limited to pierced ears. Throughout the centuries of body piercing it was common for women to wear jewelry in pierced labia and pierced nipples. Men wore rings and tiny carved idols through their pierced foreskins.

During the past several hundred years the repressive moral attitudes of European and English society have cast a shadow over erotic body piercing. To the pious, ritualistic leaders of these conservative cultures, erotic body piercing was barbaric, pagan and unsophisticated. Fortunately, times are changing. Human sexuality and erotic pleasure is out of the closet.

Body piercing is enjoying an explosive revival from coast to coast. Hundreds of specialty shops offer gold and silver jewelry for pierced bodies, and special charms and designs are being made for use in women's labia and nipples, as well as in men's foreskin, frenum and even testicle sacs. David and Lisa, a newlywed couple from Sacramento in their early 20s put it this way:

"When David and I were planning the wedding, we wanted to do something that was really personal and created a real and lasting bond between us. We decided to buy two gold rings. We had David's name engraved on one, and mine engraved on the other."

"Then we found someone who would do the job for us and my left labia lip was pierced. David had the loose skin under the head of his cock pierced. Today we wear the gold rings through our bodies. I wear the ring with David's name and he wears mine. When someone asks where our wedding rings are, I usually say something like, 'Oh, we've got them tucked away in a nice safe place.'"

To David and Lisa, body piercing is a deep and personal sign of their love and marriage vows together. It is certainly anything but barbaric and unsophisticated. Sandy, a housewife from Northern California, wears pierced body jewelry for quite a different reason.

"I have nipples my husband calls "push-button tits." When they are excited by his touch they grow to about one-quarter inch. They sort of look like little pencil erasers poking out.

"My husband, Tom, pierced both my nipples during a night of some B&D play and put gold hoop rings through them. When we go out for dinner or something, he passes a thin gold chain through the hoops and fastens it around behind my neck. The chain pulls up on the hoops gently and makes my nipples hard. It also makes my whole breasts sit up higher than normal. I don't even have to wear a bra. And whenever he wants to remind me of who's boss, he just reaches behind my neck and tugs a little on the chain. When he does, my nipples bounce up and I feel a little sting of pain and pleasure too."

Bondage and Discipline plays an important role in erotic body piercing to many couples. It can represent slave status, and, the act of piercing itself, if combined with bondage and foreplay, can be a deeply pleasurable experience.

Steve and Monique of Key West, Florida have been devoted to erotic piercing and B&D play for the nine years of their marriage. Steve tells the story of Monique's talents.

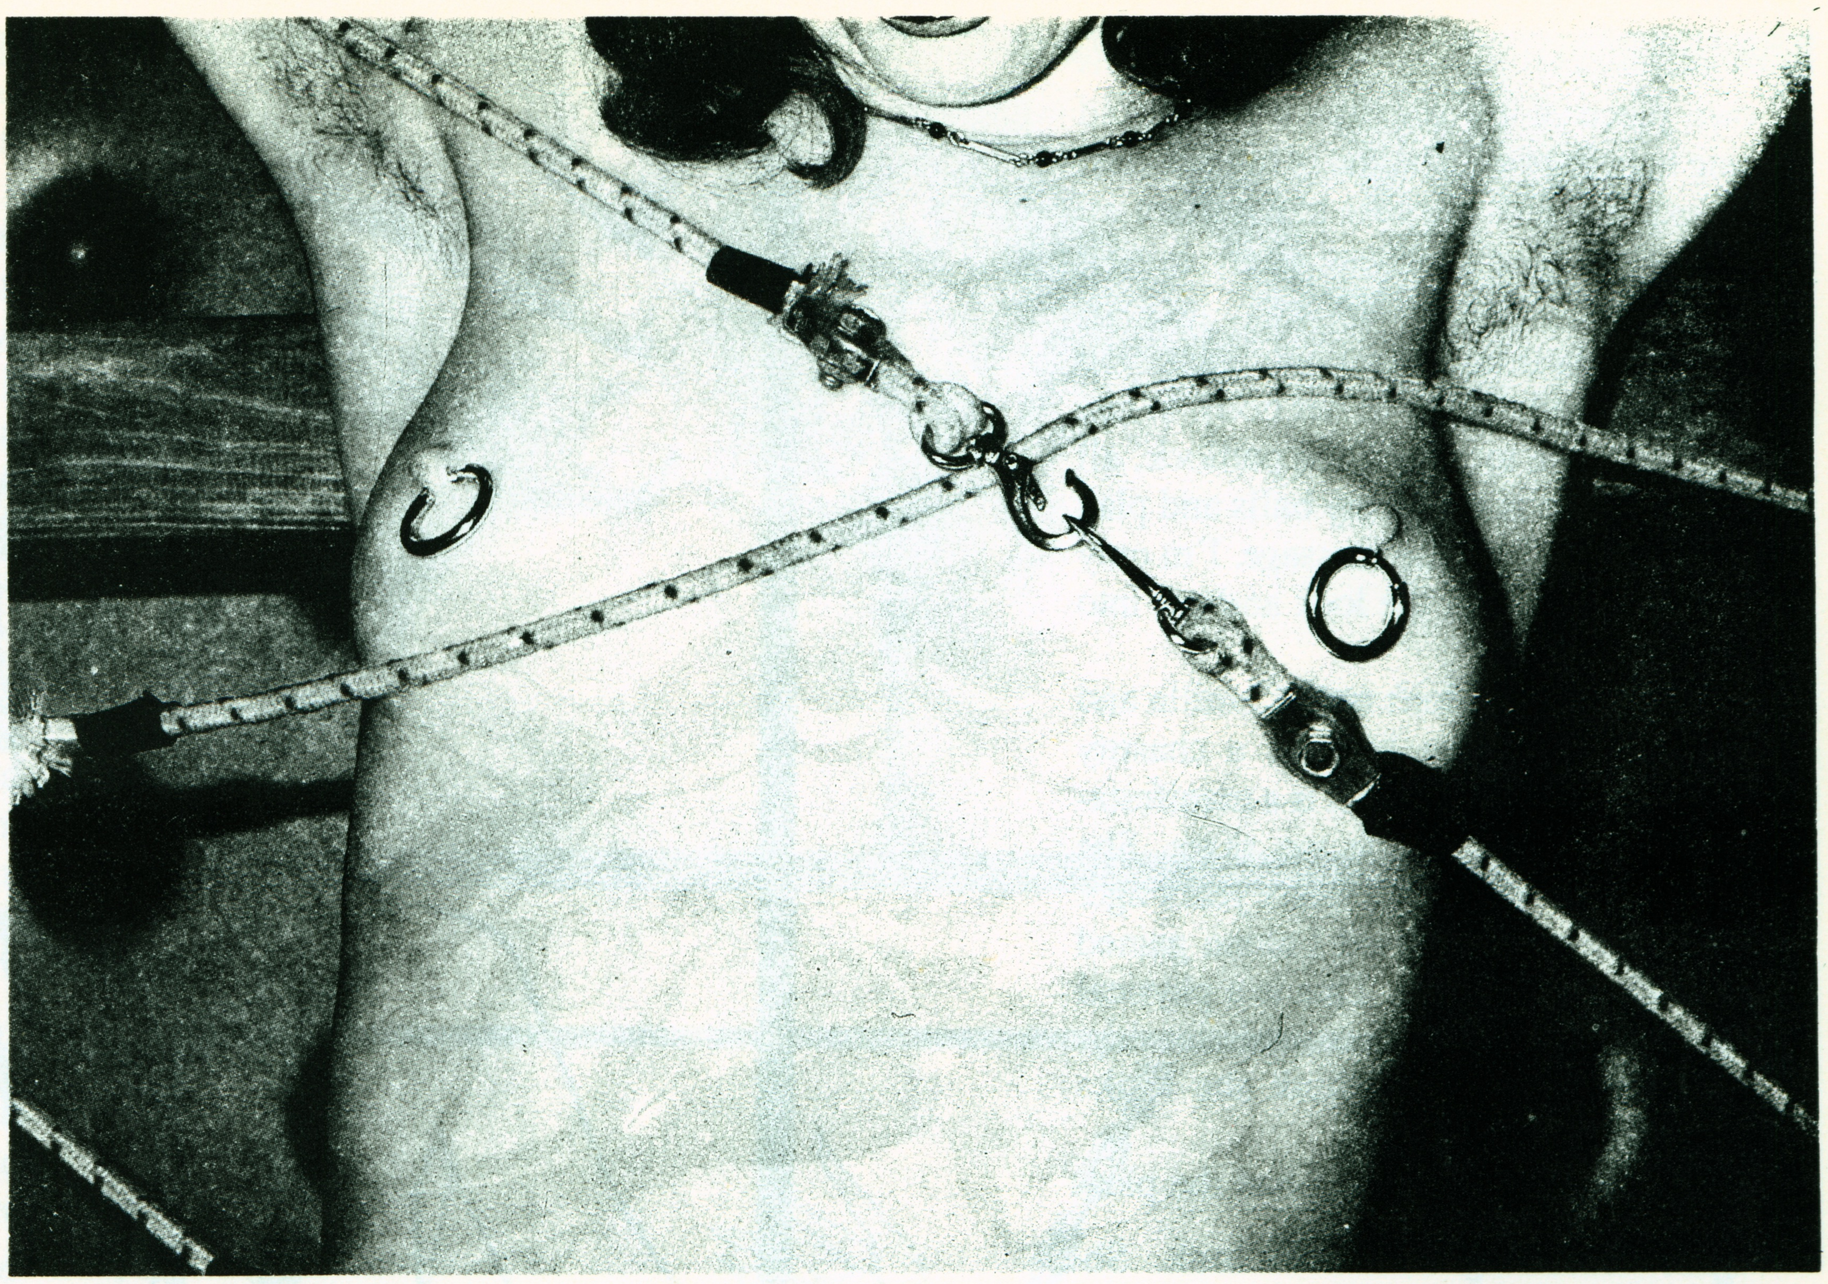
"Monique is dominant in our relationship. I guess you could say that I'm her sex slave. It doesn't mean that I'm a wimp or a pansy, but it does mean that she enjoys dominant sex and I enjoy submissive sex, that's all. We've got good jobs, a nice income, a family, and we're just like everybody else. The only difference is that we like spicy gourmet sex instead of the plain-Jane vanilla sex most people do.

"Sure, I've been pierced and I wear jewelry, and I like it. So does Monique. I'm not circumcised, so the foreskin on my cock is intact; and it's ideal for piercing. I wear two 14-carat gold rings through my foreskin. I also wear tiny little 14-carat gold handcuffs hanging from the bottom of my balls. But that's not all, I also wear white gold Florentine ropes through my nipples and a silver stud in one ear. Monique did it all and the jewelry, well, she gave it all to me as presents.

"I'll tell you about how I got the rings in my cock. Monique tied me real tightly on our bed, face-up, in a spread-eagle. Then she sprayed some kind of antibacterial spray all over my cock. Just the thought of what was about to happen made me hard and my cock was standing tall.

"She took a clump of foreskin and held it real tight. Then I felt a sharp jab. She was pushing a steel needle right through my skin. When she finally untied me, I had two brand-new gold rings in my cock.

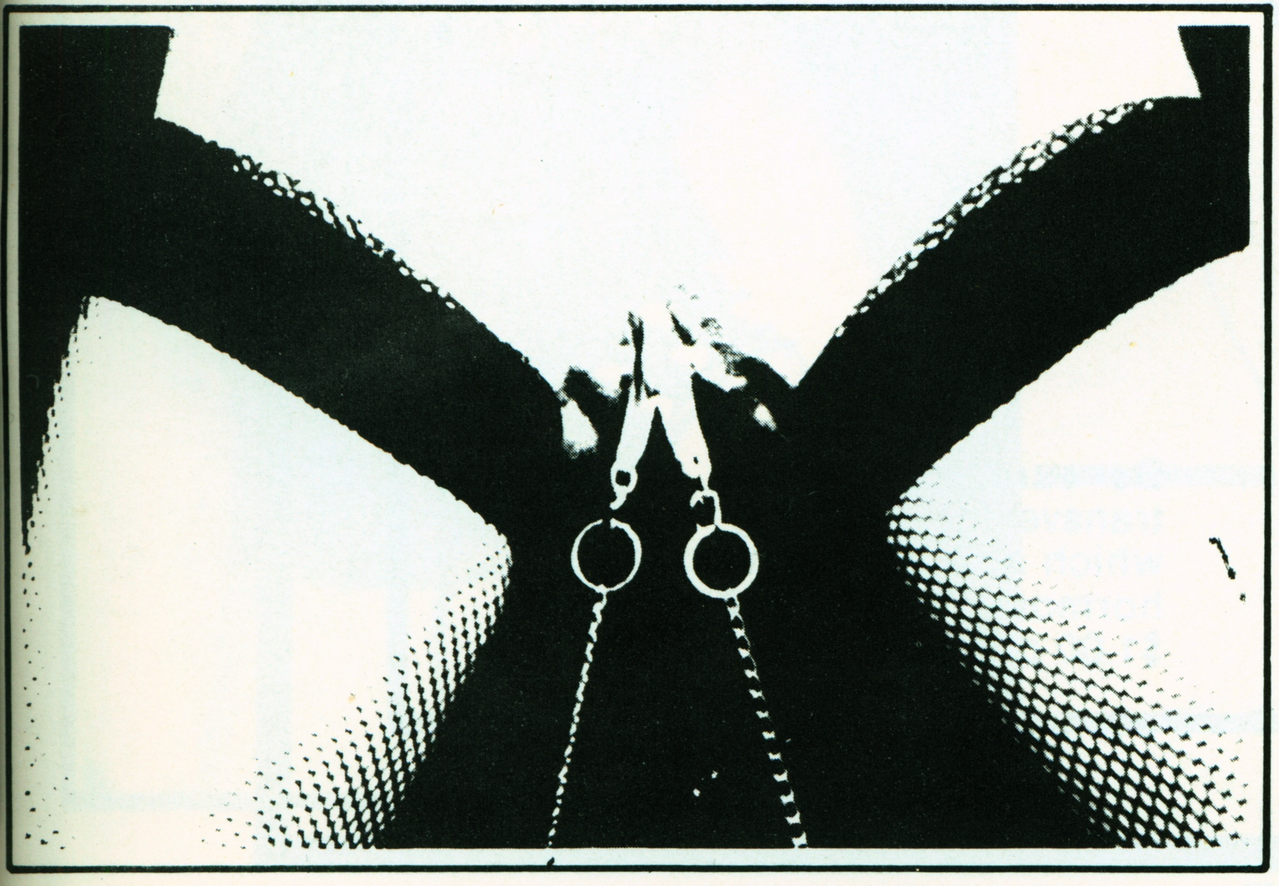
"Monique says it feels great when we fuck. The rings inside her pussy are like ben-wa balls and they rub along the inner wall. She says it made our sex a lot better."



LeVar and Camilla, a New York couple who have their own law practice, invested a considerable sum of money in their jewelry. Camilla, a strikingly beautiful Black woman in her late 20s, had both labia pierced. Through the piercings she wears a most unique piece of jewelry.

LeVar had a custom lock made for her in the shape of a heart. The body and shank of the lock are platinum. It is studded with genuine ruby gemstones which spell-out the name "LeVar" over the opening for the key.

The lock actually works and the key is 18-carat gold with a total weight of 1.5-carat diamonds adorning the shaft. LeVar passes the shank of the lock through both of Camilla's labia and snaps it shut. Sex is not possible while the lock is in place, and only LeVar holds the key.



He wears the key suspended from his own piece of jewelry. It is a small gold ring hanging from the sac of his testicles. He explained its purpose to me when we met recently at a private party in San Francisco.

"Camilla is my lady. I hold the key to her heart and the key to her body. When she wants me to unlock the padlock, all she has to do is stroke my balls and play with the key. I get the message. I'm only too happy to open the lock and get into the treasure.

"It's not that I don't trust Camilla and that I'm using the lock as a chastity device. Not at all. To us it is a manifestation of the sensual life we share. She gave me the key to her heart years ago. When we were married I alone gained the right to her body. This is a physical way of demonstrating our relationship. Anyway, Mr. Bair, I think she looks beautiful in it."

And indeed she does. I had the pleasure of seeing Camilla's lock. She stripped completely. She said she wanted me to see the full effect. She was right. Her rich brown body was flawless, smooth, delicate and proportioned perfectly. A small but dense patch of black pubic hair formed an almost perfect triangle over her vagina. In the center hung a brilliant platinum lock. The shank passed through both of her dark brown labia. It was a striking, stunning contrast. As she moved, the ruby gemstones sparkled and reflected flashes of a deep red. I read the word they spelled, L-e-V-a-r.

Camilla's platinum lock was, without any doubt at all, the most beautiful piece of jewelry I have ever seen a lady wear. It was also the most significant. Camilla's lock achieved magnificently what most jewelry creations can only attempt.

The "dydoe" piercing is becoming increasingly popular among circumcized men. The head, or "glans" of the circumcized penis is less sensitive than the glans of the un-circumcized, or "intact" penis which retains its natural foreskin covering.

Many men want to increase the sensitivity of the glans and regain some of the sensation which they feel has been lost through infant circumcision. The piercing is made on one side of the glans, usually through the lip, where the glans flares-up like a little fireman's helmet. Most commonly the other side is also pierced and short studs are passed through the piercings. They are tipped at each end with screw-on balls of varying sizes.

Be sure to see our newest transvestite catalog no. 3 which also has vitamin female hormones. Price $15.00 plus $1.00 postage.

Nathan is a freshman at the University of California. Six months ago he had two dydoe piercings made in his penis. He explains the difference this way.

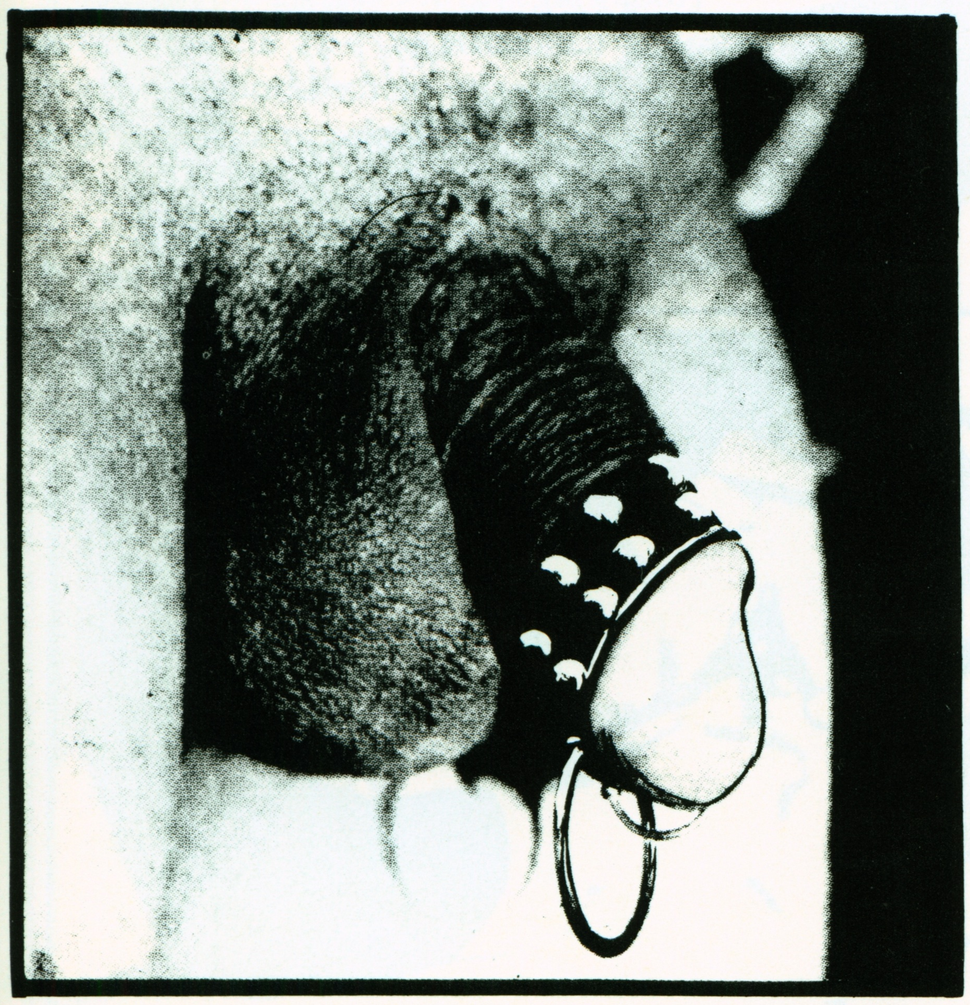
"It is night and day. My older brother's cock isn't circumcized. He has all his natural foreskin. He always seemed to enjoy sex more than me. It just seemed to be so much more intense to him. He said it was because his cock was natural. He said his cock head was more tender and that made all the difference."

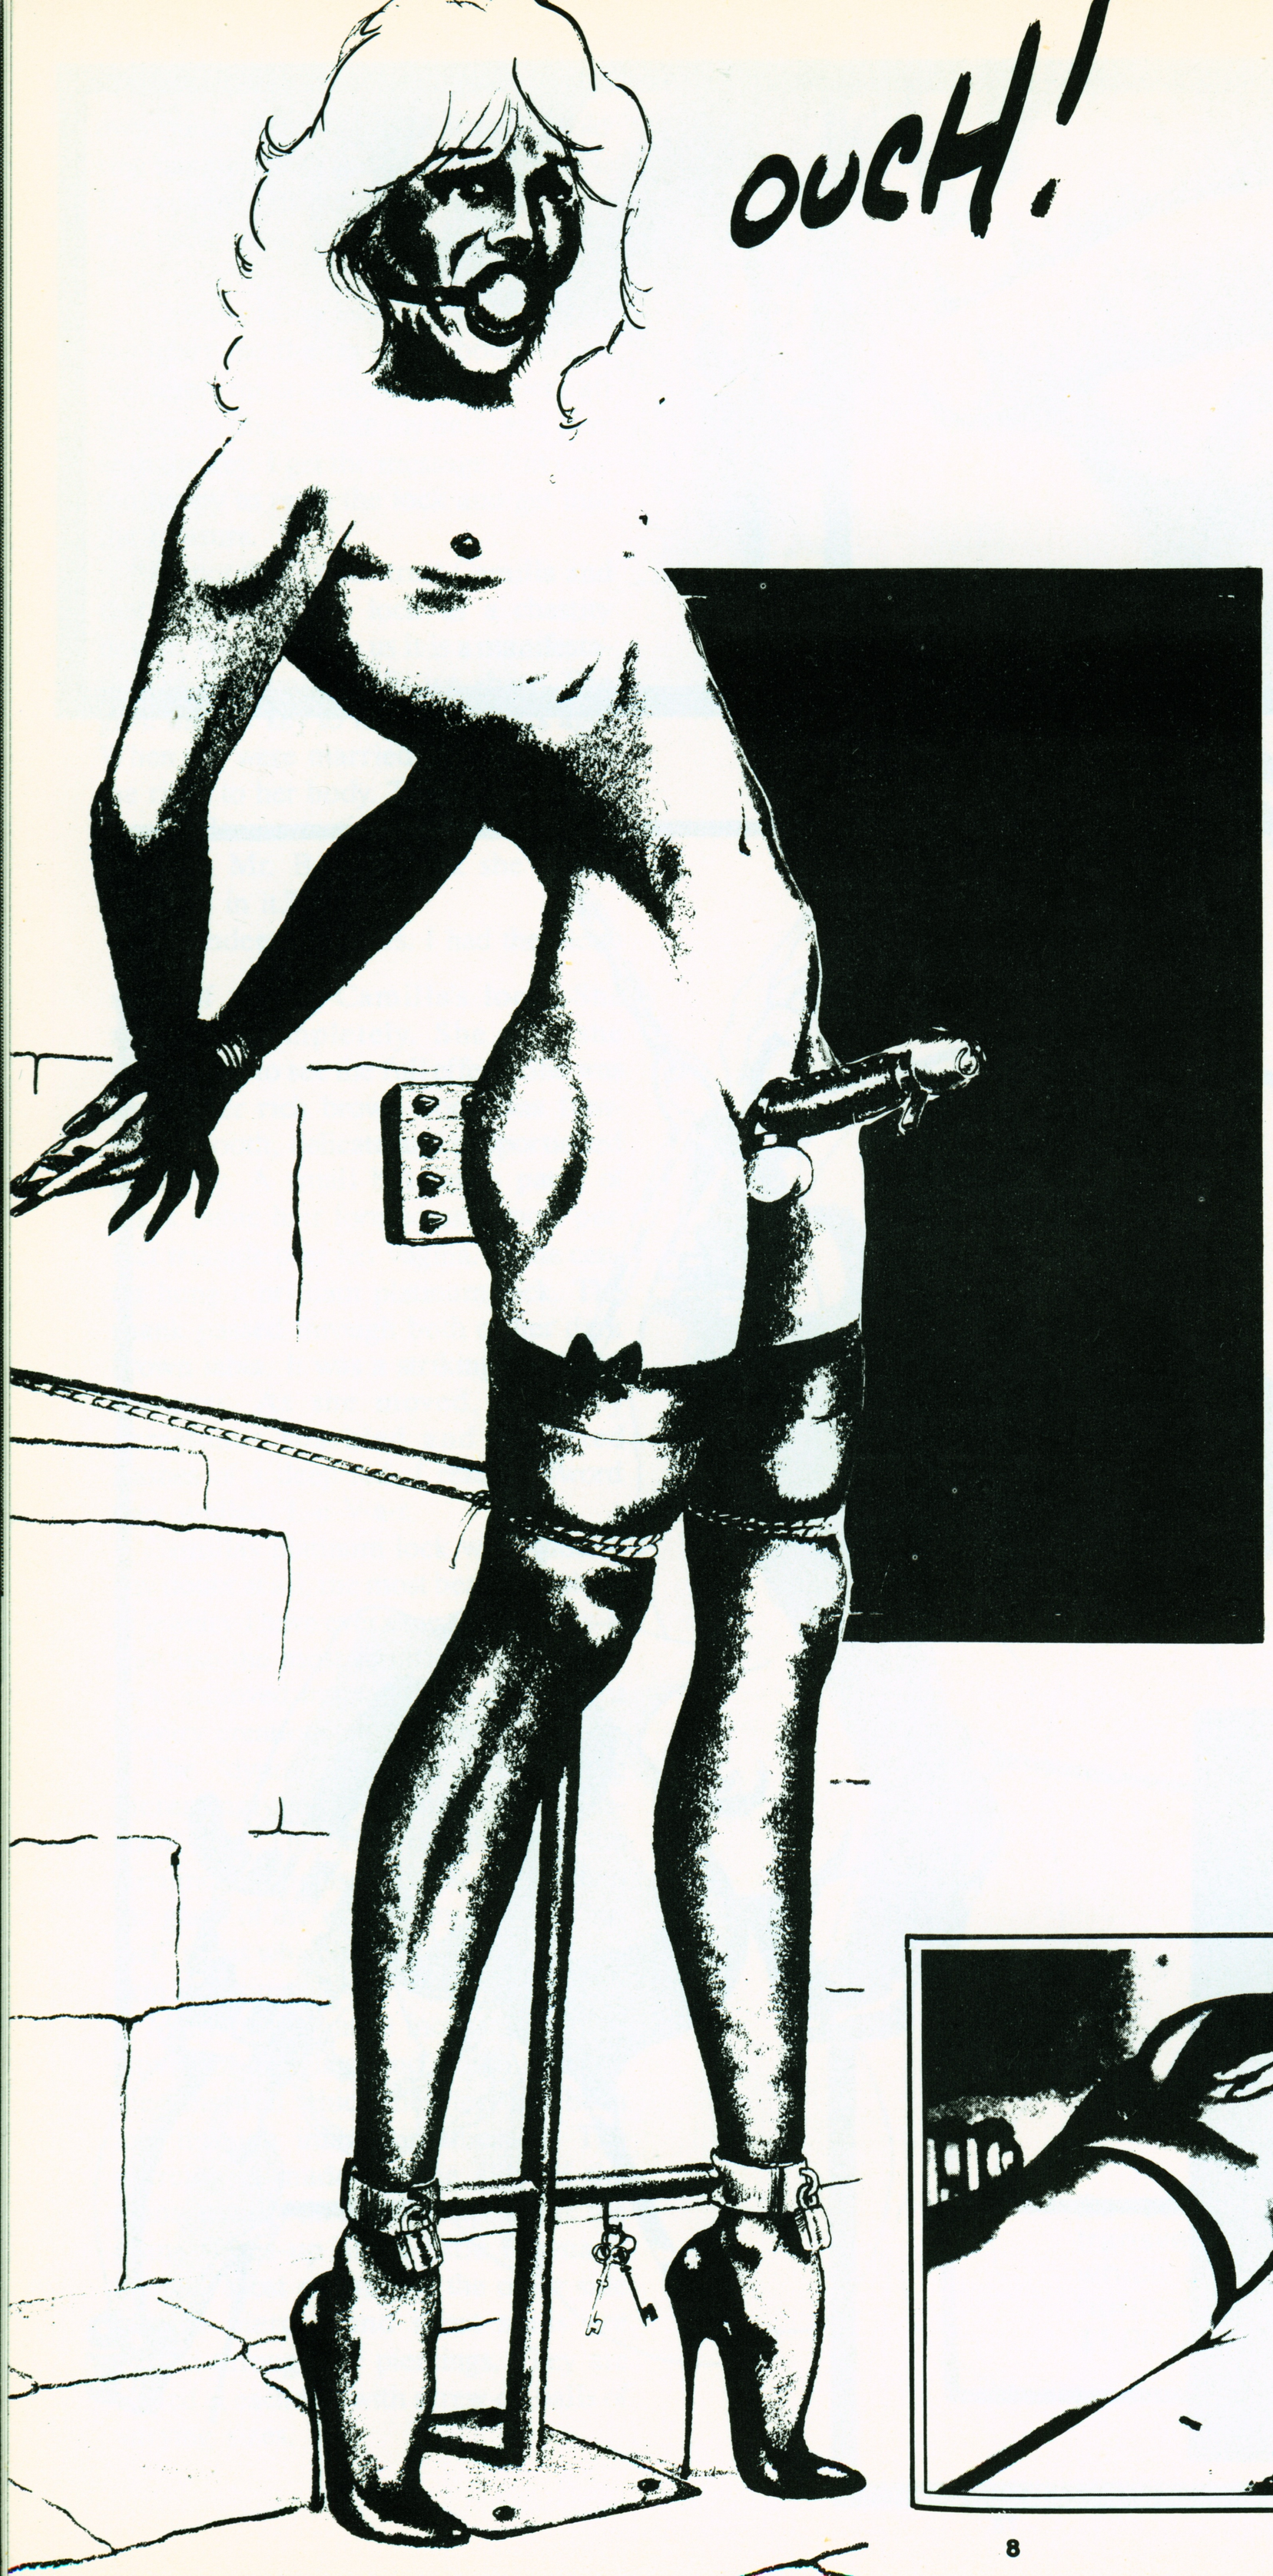
"I heard about a guy from the Middle East who lives down in the Bay Area. He is supposed to be an expert at this kind of stuff. So, I drove down to San Francisco to look him up. He told me about dydoes, and he said that my brother was right about uncut cocks being more sensitive.

"He pierced the head of my cock on both sides and put in little steel bars cut to just the right length. They're threaded on the ends and two little steel balls are fastened on. It really makes a difference.

"Whenever I fuck my girlfriend I can feel those little balls rubbing against the inside of her pussy. The balls make the bars move around and the sensation just about drives me wild. It's S-U-P-E-R sex, really super.

"She likes it too. At first she thought I was nuts, but after our first fuck with those little dydoe balls rubbing against her tunnel, she said she never wanted it any other way. Now she is always ready to screw and I get as much as I can handle."





Nathan's story is not unique. Dydoe piercing is fast becoming the "in" thing throughout California college and university campuses. Without doubt, dydoe piercings will soon be spreading across the country as more and more young men discover the increased pleasure pierced body jewelry can provide.

Then there is the punk rock phenomenon. Body jewelry is big in punk rock circles. I spoke to Cindy, a cute 5'1" girl from Seattle who had just turned 18 two days before I met her. She wore brighty colored clothes of red, orange, pink, blue and yellow. Several multi-colored shawls covered her milky-white shoulders which had been tattooed with designs of lightning streaks and flamingos.

She wore blue-green plastic hoops through her ears. I asked if she had any other piercings or if it was popular for punk rockers to have body piercings. She answered me by pulling down her orange and pink blouse to show me her nipples. Ordinary safetypins were fastened through each. This is her story:

"My old man did it. He's 19 and he's a rocker too. He poked my tits and gave me the pins. I poked his too and gave him two pins too. He wears a little chain between his. Wild, ain't it?

"It didn't hurt. He put a potato on one side and just shot a pin straight on through. No big deal. I did the same to him, but he jerked . . . and they say we're weak, huh?"

Cindy's safetypin-pierced nipples may be a bit outrageous to most of us, but the meaningful beauty of David and Lisa's wedding bands or the exquisite beauty of Camille's ruby-studded platinum padlock are easy to appreciate and admire.

But really it's all a matter of choice. Hoop rings, dydoe bars, padlocks, dangling handcuffs . . . it's all part of the new popularity pierced body jewelry is enjoying. And it's almost surely a trend that is here to stay. After all . . . it's been around for a very long time.

THIS DEPICTS A MALE WHO HAS BEEN FEMINIZED AND PIERCED INTO SLAVERY FOR HIS MASTER.

FOR SOME REASON--SLAVERY THRU PIERCING IS BECOMING VERY POPULAR FOR BOTH MEN AND WOMEN, EXPECIALLY IN THE LAST 2 YEARS. MEN & WOMEN, MASTERS & MISTRESSES WANT TO MAKE SURE THEIR SLAVES CAN NO LONGER MESS AROUND. MANY MASTERS THINK THIS IS THE ULTIMATE STEP IN SLAVERY.

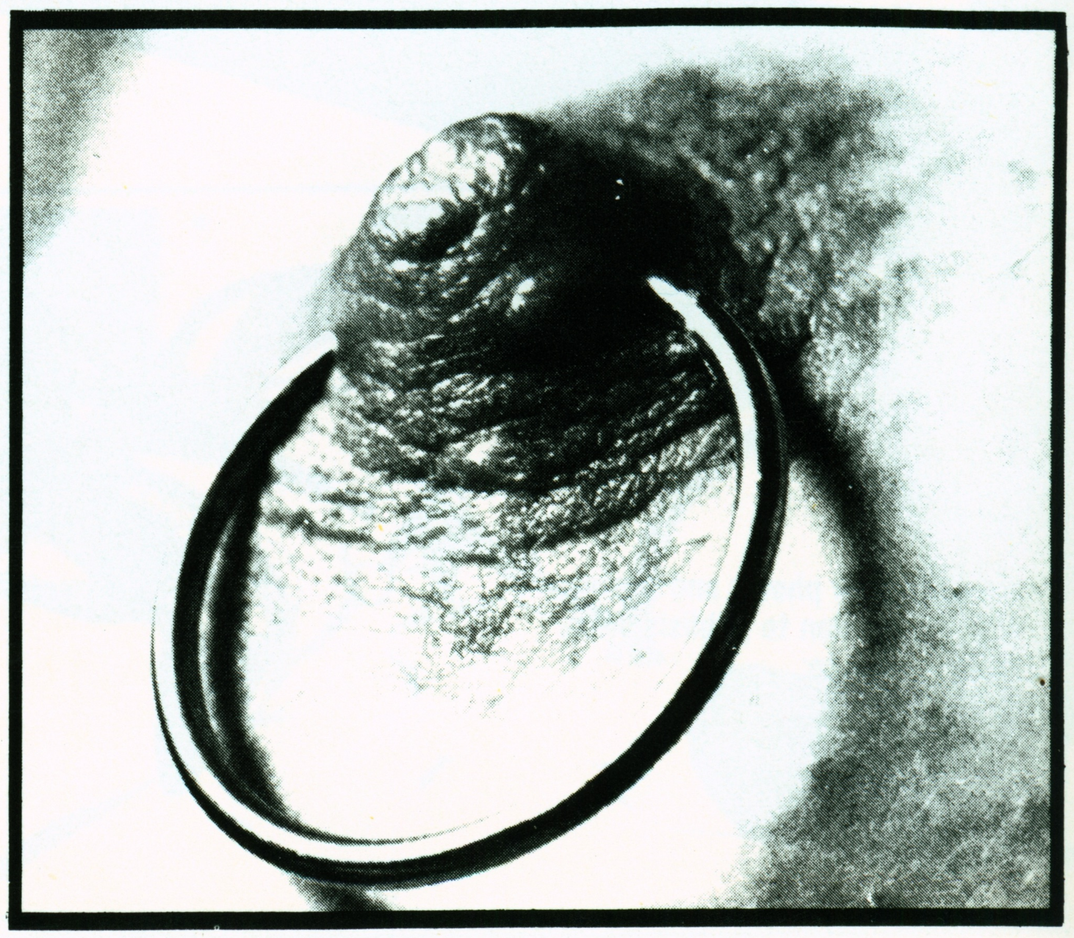
And now thru Spartacus Publishing you can purchase many of these items, including some new inventions by Spartacus that chastizes the male similar to ancient devices invented by the Romans...Infibulation. Devices that render the male incpable of having sex. Infibulation was also used in England, France and Germany 100's of years ago.



LETTERS, PHOTOS, AND STORIES WE HAVE RECEIVED FROM MANY OF OUR READERS WHO HAVE USED PIERCING AND COMPLETE FEMINIZATION AS A FORM OF TOTAL SLAVERY.

Dear Centurians,

I am writing to tell all of your women readers how to make their men into everlasting slaves, the same way I have done mine. Please publish my letter so all women will know how easy it can be.

After he tell you how much he loves you and he says he'll do anything for you, the next step is to tell him you would like him to prove it by being your slave for the rest of his life. If he loves you like he says, he will. If he doesn't, you'll know you can't trust him.

If he will, first have him shave all the hair on his body except his head. That means his legs, chest and even under his arms. If you wish, even around his pecker. Make him keep clean shaven until you wish otherwise.

This does many things to your benefit. He won't want anyone to see his body because he will feel naked. You might find (like I did) that he will be much cleaner (by sight and touch) as well as more docile to be with and nice to lay next to without being stabbed and pricked to death by hair stubbles.

Second, take him to a tattoo parlor and have your name engraved in one or two places on his body. (I had "Connie's Slave" tattooed on his butt cheek.) This will mark his body for life, just as your property only.

Third, take him down to get his ears pierced. There are several good reasons for doing this. One, you can make him wear pierced studs with your initials, any type you want. You can have permanent rings and/or studs if you wish. Sometimes my slave can't wear earrings because of his work, so I have not pur permanent earrings in his ears. His pierced ears don't show unless I make him wear earrings. Another reason is when you have him in bondage you can put hoops in his ears and attach chains so that he won't dare move his head.

The most important reason for having his ears pierced, is to find out if he is allergic to any metals such as silver, gold, platinum or stainless steel. This will lead the way to the ultimate slavery by piercing his nipples and penis. My slave had an allergic reaction to stainless steel and his ears kept getting infected so I changed to platinum post and they held up real well.

Fourth, you take him down to a specialist and have permanent large solid rings put through his penis just behind his penis head on the bottom as well as through both of his nipples.

I am sure there is no need to explain the reasons behind this, as there are many. He can no longer have sex, he cannot even masturbate.

The piercing of his nipples are essential. He now has a constant reminder that he must wear for the rest of his life, that he is your slave only. It is a humiliation that will remind him for the rest of his life, that he is a slave to do all of your bidding. No matter where he is he will always feel them and think of you.

For his punishment with bondage his piercings are perfect for connecting chains so he cannot move. You can put fishing weights on them when you want to torture him for being bad. And when you have him stand nude in front of you with his hands tied behind his back, you see studs permanently attached to his nipples. If you are like me it will turn you on knowing he is your very own slave to do with as you want. I find it very sexy.

Back in the pirate days, many pirates had their nipples adorned with piercings. Nipple piercings are not new. Many cultures have done this for years.

Fifth, the last and final deed: Premium, a female hormone that has been proven to be the safest female hormones if taken only once a day, if not misused in overdoses.

Go to Mexico and go into any pharmacy and ask for Premium. And this of course you give to your slave once a day. It is advised that you give this to him for six months then stop for one month. Then continue for three months and stop for another month and continue like this for as long as you want, and your slave will not have any after effects except (of course) to become more feminine. Why should you give your slave hormones you might ask? The reasons again are numerous. He will become more gentle, he will start to learn what it is like to be a little feminine, to endure humiliation, and his nipples will start to get larger for easier holding of the pierced nipples. His breasts will grow larger for the ultimate humiliation, (he would never dare expose his body.) It will make your slave realize what women have gone through for years. Every man should have to find out what it feels like to go through life as a woman, mentally and physically. It makes them a much more understanding person.

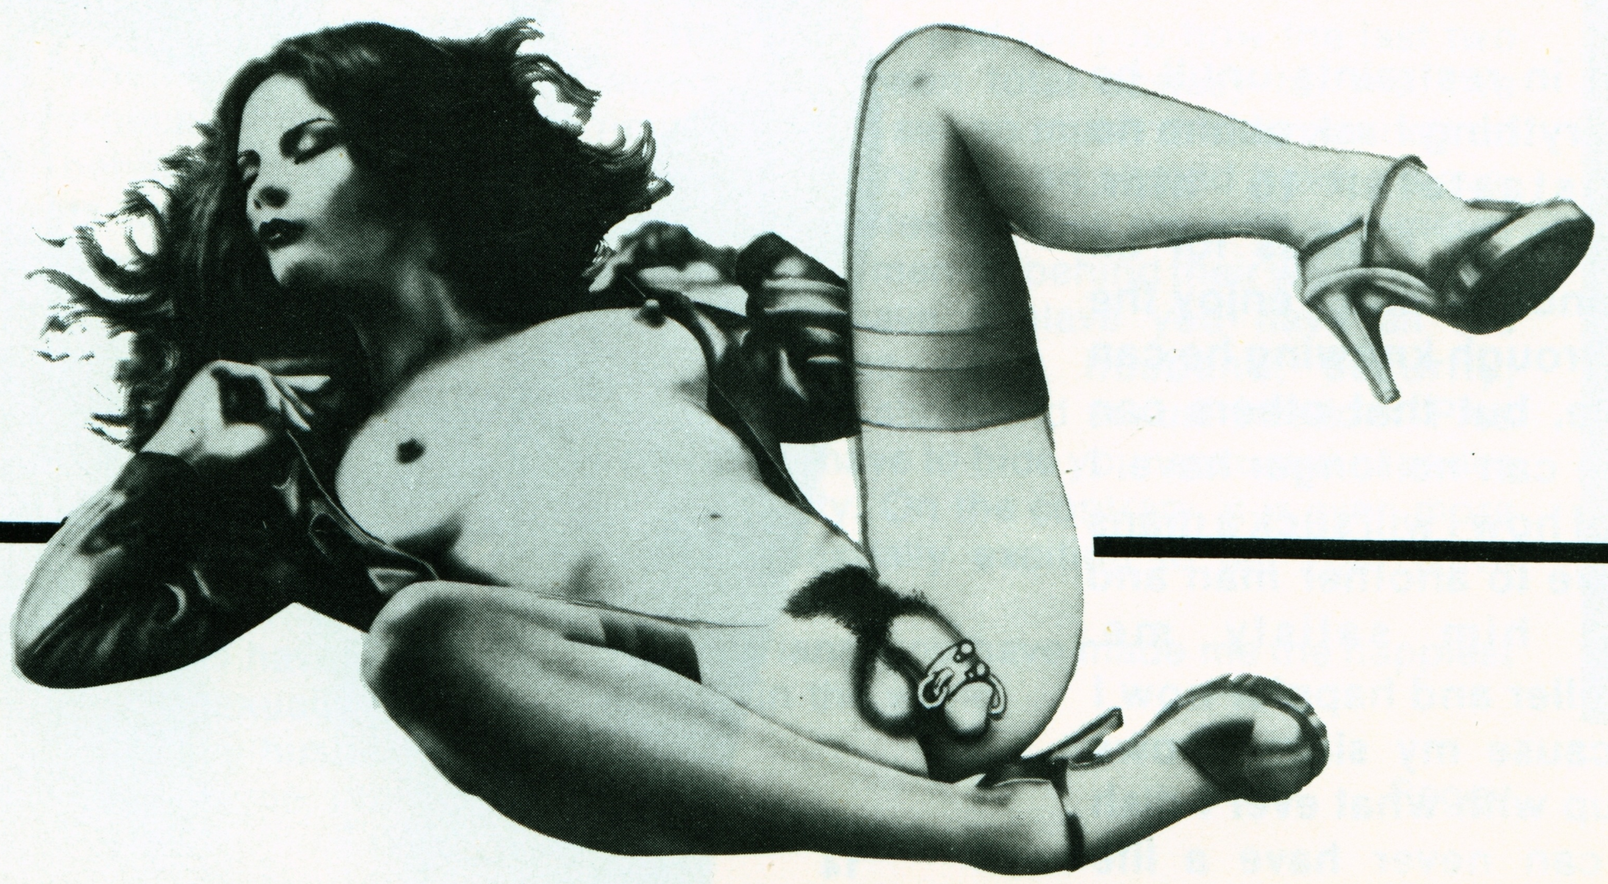
This is what has been described in many magazines this past year as the complete slavery of the male species. This is what I did to my husband after nineteen years of marriage. And let me tell you, it has made a tremendous change in our marriage for the better.

Our marriage had become a dreary joke. There was no excitement left. He had hit middle-age and I suspected he was messing around. I was not happy, our love for each other had dwindled to practically nothing. But now all of this has changed. We are both very happy. He has proven to me that he loves me, and I love him. We now love each other more and much deeper than we ever had before.

Seriously, I have never been so turned on. I love to tie his hands behind his back while he is totally nude then torture and humiliate him. He makes a beautiful sight, his clean shaven smooth body, his pierced nipples and small breasts, his heavy ring pierced through his penis, and all topped off with my name tattooed on his behind. I will not go into all the things I do to him, but it does turn me on to tie him to the bedpost and attach connecting chains to all of his rings and just look at him. I usually then let him down to kiss my feet and other parts of my body until I climax. It turns me on knowing he cannot have sex and all his attention has been transferred to satisfying me.

As I write this I have him bound up for the night in one of your armbinders behind his back and attached a lock on the ring on the end of the armbinder to the piercing ring on the end of his pecker. He dare not move. I realize this is not a proper way to tie down a slave for overnight, but he did not kiss my private parts the way he had been taught. And he talked back to me this afternoon. So he must suffer and learn to be obedient.

Love to all,
Connie



Unfaithful Husband Agrees To Become a SLAVE

Dear Lee,

My slave and I just received your Slave Training Magazine and I am writing per your request.

My husband agreed to become my slave when I suspected him of being unfaithful.

He has already had the Gauntlet operation which if your readers do not already know, renders a man completely incapable of ever having sex again.

Since his operation I have forced him through all the steps of slavery, humiliation and forced feminization to take away from him every bit of manhood. He now knows what it is like to be treated as women in this society today. I make him wear and do what is expected of a woman in this world. I make him go through the everyday humiliations we have to indulge in.

It is now he who has to worry and wonder who I am screwing around with. It is now he who must dress in what women have been made to wear to please a man. It is now him who is forced to face the humiliation of me having open affairs with others. It is he who must endure when I tell him of my several encounters with others and how I sexually satisfy others now that he is no longer capable of doing so.

The more feminine I make my slave the more I enjoy sex with others, and the more of a lady my slave becomes. The people who know of my promiscuousness ways understand.

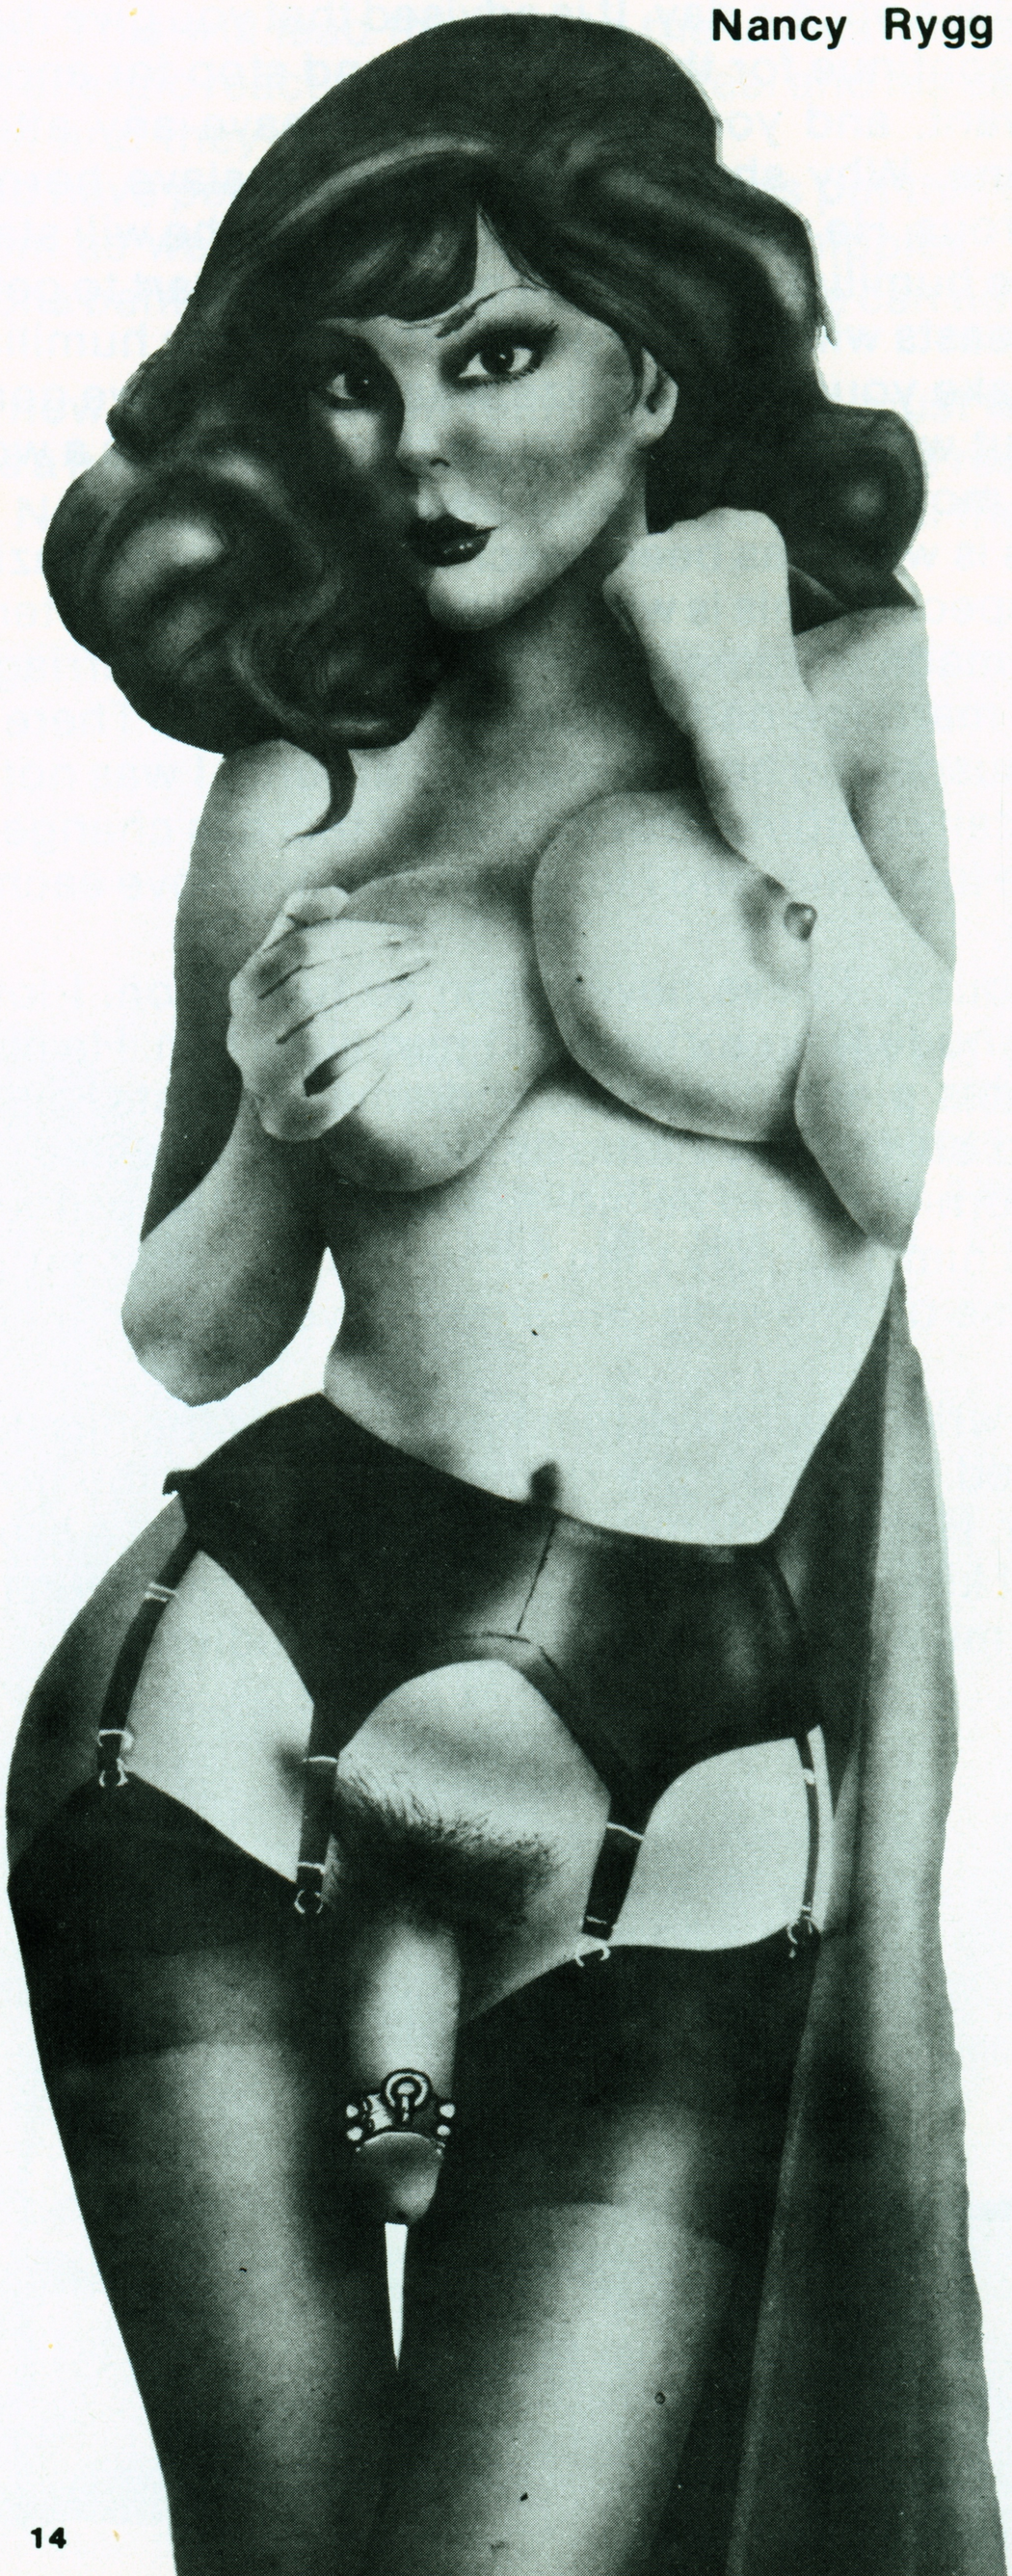
My slave is kept in restraints untill he promises to do everything I ask of him no matter how distasteful to him.

I make him watch as I dress for an evening out with another and I enjoy the torment he goes through knowing he can no longer have me, but that others can now enjoy what he can no longer have. I tell him as I dress of how I will suck a mans cock and make love to another man and how I will let him satisfy me.

My life is much fuller and happier now I have security because my slave knows that he must put up with what ever I dish out because he can never have a life without me.

I now can do as I please without guilt and never have to worry about the consequences. I even have my own slave to tell of my escapades.

Nancy Rygg



Woman Chastises And Feminizes Slave And Makes Him Suck Out Lovers Cum From Her Pussy.

Dear Slave Training,

I am writing because of your ardent request for women masters to tell their story of how they trained their slave.

My husband has now been my slave for six months. My story is like many of your other readers. I found out he was messing around behind my back. To make a long story short, he agreed to become my slave if I would forgive him.

I have been reading the many articles in various publications on how to make a man a slave so he can never ever again run around.

For the last six months I have slowly trained and transformed him into what is called the complete slave. He has now been pierced through his penis and nipples and permanent rings have been installed. I have made him get tattooed three different times in all the right places. Everytime he does something wrong I make him get a tattoo. We went to Mexico where we got the female hormones and he is made to shave his entire body weekly. His body is now such that he could never show it to anyone else but me. It has been tattooed and feminized.

Two weeks ago after I felt that he could no longer, ever, show himself to another woman let alone make love to another, I told him that now it was my turn to fulfill my sexual needs and desires.

For six months now he has been chastized and cannot have sex. When he gets hard it is extremely painful to him because the ring goes through his skin just behind the head of his penis and when he gets hard the skin grows tight, making the ring dig deeply into the skin and penis. This drives him crazy because he tries not to get hard, but cannot help it when I stroll in front of him nude or wearing something sexy.

Now that he is a complete slave to me, I am free to do as I wish without having to worry about him. The last two weeks have been two of the best weeks of my life sexually.

Not only do I drive my slave husband mad with envy that others can have me, I have had five different men in just two weeks. My husband once thought I did not care about my sexual pleasure. He is finding out I do and have a much larger sex drive than I ever thought I had.

I think a lot of it is knowing my husband can no longer have sex and rubbing it in his face that I can. I tell him about the big cocks I suck. I tell him how others eat me out much better than he ever could. I tell him about getting it on with men much bigger than he is. He can never do anything about it again. He must love me now because no one else would ever have him the way he looks now. Especially with tattoos all over his body with my name as well as a feminized body.

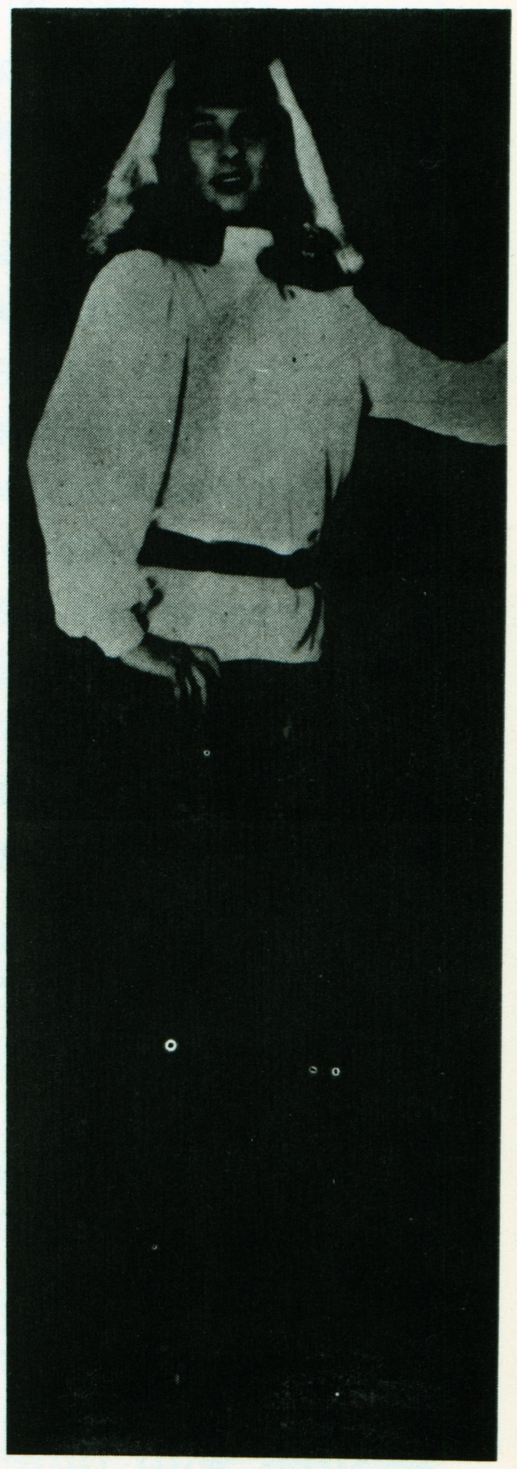
He knows that no woman would want to make love with a whimp who is half female, pierced and tattooed. I tell him this includes me and that is why I have to get sex elsewhere. It is now too late for him to ever change his mind. He's been made into the complete slave for the rest of his life. My slave.

Tonight when I came home I grabbed his hair and pulled his face into my crotch and told him this is what any man I want can have and that you never again shall. While his hands were still tied behind him and he was kneeling at my feet I made him suck out the cum from tonight's love affair.

I had to write and tell you how the last two weeks have been total ecstasy for me. I've never enjoyed sex so much or been turned on so much. Every woman should have a slave. And then be free to have sex with whomever she wants, as men do behind their wives backs. When you have a slave you have all the conveniences of a husband, security, happiness, a slave and sexual freedom. Plus you do not have to hide your sexual escapades or feel guilty. On the contrary, it is even more fun and sexually exciting to tell your slave about them.

Centurians, you have made me the happiest woman in the world.

Peggy



MISTRESS FULFILLS HER SEXUAL DESIRES ELSEWHERE WHILE HUSBAND IS IN SLAVERY & BONDAGE.

Dear Centurians,

I would like to share the photos we took the other day with you. Enclosed are some of the pictures we took.

My slave has been made into a feminine slave to satisfy my body by the means of his mouth, only because his penis has been pierced and ne can no longer have sex.

We both enjoy your publications and wish to participate in your reader's requests.

I enjoy sex and I have found that by making my husband into a female slave I can fulfill my sexual needs and still have a happy, secure marriage.

The more feminine I make my slave the more reason I have to satisfy my sexual needs whenever and with whomever I desire.

I keep my slave clean shaven, peirced and make sure he takes his hormones daily. He must always wear feminine attire. I keep him in bondage most of the time, except when he's working or satisfying my needs.

The more feminine he becomes, the more of a submissive slave he is, and the more often I get excited and need to fulfill my sexual desires with others. Let me try and clarify this last.

When I tie him up I make sure he is wearing female clothes, such as shoes, hose, and a push-up bra to enhance his small breasts. When he's all tied up I might top him off by putting lipstick on him. When I finish, I step back and look at him with his pierced chastized penis and see what a femmed slave he's become. This excites me because I can tell him right out what a wimp he is and then I can go out for the evening without any guilt whatsoever on my part, to have sex with whomever I choose. The more feminine I make him, the more it excites me that I can do whatever I want and my slave must endure my affairs without getting any sex himself.

It excites me to dress in front of him while he's tied up and tell him how I must find my sexual needs elsewhere. By the time I'm dressed and ready to leave, I'm already excited about finding a man for the night.

For those of you who think that by piercing and femming your slave that your sex life will suffer, be assured on the contrary, your sex life will become more exciting and frequent.

BONDAGE SLAVE

HUMILIATION OF A SLAVE!

Dear Lee,

My slave has had the Gountlet operation.

Below I have listed some of the humiliations I put my slave through. I hope you publish this so as other women can read.

Make slave wear a Tampax.

Sit on his face after an affair as if you were going to let him kiss your pussy, and while he is tied face up piss all over face.

Discribe in detail your affairs with others.

Tape his eyes closed with strong tape.

Make him wear a dido up his ass or put on a double dido and fuck his ass.

Dress him up before you go out including lipstick and make up so you can humiliate him when you get back.

Make slave suck cum off you after a love affair.

Make him wear lingerie to bed.

Make him wear Lee's Long Press on nails.

Make him clean your shoes and boats by wearing one of Centurians shoe gags.

Keep him sexually aroused so he is in constant pain from his chastisted penis.

Let him see your nude body often so that he knows what others can have that he no longer can.

Make him wear womens clothes and shoes at all times.

Make him wear perfume even to work. Put it all over his body while he is tied.

Tell him in detail how you suck other men cocks.

Make him wear a pink lipgloss.

Have his ears pierced.

Have your intiáls tattooed on his neck and other desired locations.

Lock on a collar once in a while to wear to work. He will have to either wear a turtle neck or be seen by others as he is ---A SLAVE.

Debbie Robokoff

Slave Kept In Bondage And Armbinders While Mistress Fucks Others.

Dear Pleasure House,

I am sending you a recent photo of my slave, which I give you permission to publish in your Slave Training magazine.

When my husband and I were first married, my husband always wanted to indulge in bondage and discipline. I did it only because he enjoyed it and being a new bride I could not say no. It did nothing for me for many years until about three years ago when I read some articles on real slavery and how and what to do to make your slave into a real slave and over the years since then I have read many more articles pertaining to the same thing.

Three years ago was when I suggested that if he enjoyed bondage so much, that we should do it for real so that I could enjoy it as well. After reading the articles on how to make your man into a real slave it had caught my interest, and he liked the idea. Ever since then I have slowly changed him into a real feminine slave so that the rest of his life he will be nothing but my slave.

I am sure you know the many steps of training a slave, but for your readers who do not, this includes piercing and welding of permanent rings through the penis and nipples as well as total feminization by hormone treatment.

My slave must also shave his entire body once a week including his arms so that he is entirely clean shaven as well as soft. My slave also has my name tattoed in various places on his body. Whenever I want another tattoo on him I tie him up for long periods of time until he promises to add another tattoo wherever I want.

In my case I know that my slave used to sleep with others so I feel no remorse in what I have done to him. In fact I now enjoy sex with whomever I choose. As my husband can no longer have sex because I have him chastized with his penis being pierced with his permanent ring and because I have made him into a feminine wimp slave. I do not feel guilty nor do I worry about him leaving be because his body has been feminized with hormone treatments, and marked with my name in many places. So he can't say anything or do any thing about my escapades with my lovers.

When I am not getting sex at my lovers I have my slave satisfy me with his tongue, dildoes and vibrators. Believe me when I say that we are both much happier now. He gets what he wants and for the first time in our marriage I am turned on constantly.

I usually go out dancing once or twice a week. And if I find a sexy man I want to have sex with I do, and of course I humiliate my slave later by doing so. And then I make him eat me out when I get home.

The more I humiliate him, the more I know how much he loves me. Total humiliation to a slave is very important because you can than feel your slave will love you no matter what you do to him. Always be sure your slave is bound when you do. In this way you can humiliate him and do whatever you want and only after he begs and pleads to be released and that he loves you, then you can release him.

This picture was taken after one of my nights out. Before I left I put him into armbinders behind his back and told him I needed a good fucking from a real man. He had to lay there for four hours like this thinking of me getting screwed by another man. When I got home I proceeded to tell him how I sucked another man's cock and then got fucked by a real man. I then rubbed my pussy up against his face and made him lick my lover's sperm from my pussy. I could tell he was really turned on by the smell of my pussy. (He has not been able to have sex now in over a year.) I then took my panties and stuffed them into his mouth and then fastened a ball gag around his mouth so he couldn't spit out my cum filled panties. I left him this way for another half an hour. I then made him plead with me to let him loose and tell me how much he loved me. Before I would release him, I made him promise to obey me in whatever way I asked. Sometimes I stick a dildo up his ass so he is turned on, but can't ever fulfill himself.

It is very important that every master or mistress humiliate their slave in as many ways a possible so that you know how much your slave loves and respects you.

This may sound a little harsh to some of your readers, but it is not as bad as it sounds. He gets what he wants sexually from being my slave and I get from others what I could never get from him. He understands this and so do I which makes our marriage that much stronger. I have no guilt because I tell him every time I get fucked by another. In this way he knows I don't have secrets from him. Besides he knows that he did it, and I'm just getting even.

CHEATING HUSBAND PIERCED AND FEMINIZED BY HORMONE TREATMENTS WHILE MISTRESS HAS HER OWN LOVE LIFE.

ATTENTION CENTURIANS SLAVE TRAINING COLUMN

I do not make it a habit to write to such companies as yours, especially about my private life, but your request from your magazine Slave Training for masters and mistresses enticed me to write on how I got even with my unfaithful husband who had no choice but to become my life long slave after I caught him red handed messing around.

To make this letter as short as possible, he has been feminized by continual hormone treatments and pierced. Ever since, I have made it my primary goal to get even with him and humiliate him the way he did to me. The more of a whimp and slave I make him into, the more I enjoy humiliating him on how he looks and why I go elsewhere for my sexual pleasures.

I now have a full time lover, like he used to have, whose apartment I get my love and sex at practically every night, but not until I make my slave make himself very feminine. Because of the hormones he now has small breasts which are enhanced to look bigger by wearing one of Centurians push up corsets or bras. He must put on high heels and some make up. With his body shaved like a woman's he then looks very feminine. With him bound, I make it a point to dress in front of him, putting on the sexiest of corselets, lacy undies, etc. while at the same time telling him what a pathetic whimp he is and why I have to go get screwed by a real man. Because we have children, I can only be gone for a few hours a night, so I usually tie him up around 10:00 p.m. and try to be home by no later than 2:00 a.m. I leave him bound until I arrive home three or four hours later.

The other night I bound him standing up against one of the bed posts nude except for a push-up bra and 6" heeled shoes bound with his arms behind his back in one of your armbinders. I put a helmet on him that had a ring attached to the top which I sewed to the top of the post with a rope so he could not move his head. Then I attached a chain through the ring on his penis, stretching his penis as far as I could to a ring at the bottom of the bed post. He couldn't move an inch, and he had to stay this way in those 6" heels thinking of me getting screwed by someone else till I got back home. When I arrived home about 1:00 a.m. I commenced to tell him what it was like with a real man and how he sucked me off and how I sucked his big cock and how we made love.

He was in such pain from being tied this way for so long that he was crying, like a baby to be released and telling me he'd do anything I asked. I made him tell me how much he loved me and told him I'd let him loose only to lick my lover's leftover cum from my body.

THIS DRAWING DEPICTS OUR NO. FL2C FRENUM CHASTITY SLAVE LOOP. SEE BACK OF MAGAZINE FOR MORE INTFO. NOTE HOW IT IS PIERCED THRU THE BOTTOM OF PENIS JUST BEHIND HEAD.

One of my favorite ways of getting even and turned on at the same time is when we go to Las Vegas, which is nearly once a month. I tie him up in the room with a discipline helmet on with eye and mouth openings and usually an armbinder. But I make him look very feminine by putting eye make-up and lipstick on him before securing the helmet. I lace up the push-up corset and he's already been made to put polish and perfume on. High heeled sandal shoes and then a full skirt. In this way he looks very feminine with his clean shaven body and his breast showing. No one would know he's not a real woman.

When he's secured at the end of the bed on the floor I leave to find myself some dynamite guy. I make sure he's from another state other than California. Before my new date and I get back to the room I've already explained to him that I have a slave. So far, not one of my lovers has been shocked at this. I assume most everyone knows at least a little about slaves and bondage in this day of sexual revolution. I usually have a couple hours to feel my dates out over a few drinks and at the tables. Before we finally go to the room I ask if he would mind getting a blow job from my slave. So far all have jumped at the idea. If I'm asked if my slave is a man or a woman I always tell they they will see for themselves, but lead them to believe my slave is a woman so that when they do see my slave they never have a doubt it's not. All my dates, there have been 14 so far, have all left thinking my slave was a woman.

My unfaithful husband slave already knows that if he utters one word, he will suffer severely.

While my date and I are making out in the bed with my slave tied to the end of it, it turns me on to know that my unfaithful slave has to watch as another man makes it with me.

Before I let my lover eat me, I insist that he go stand over my slave and get a blow job by putting his cock through the mouth opening in the helmet. My slave looks very feminine with his breasts pushed up, the bright lipstick showing my slave's mouth is very becoming to a man who already has a hard on and wants a blow job. On top of this my slave smells a lot of perfume. I love to watch as my dates grab his helmeted head and ram their cock into my slave's mouth.

There are three main reasons I do this to my slave. One is if my dates have any diseases, my slave will also get it if I do. Number two is, he dare not ever say anything, ever to anyone that he is a slave and I make it with other men, because if he did, he'd know I'd tell all about the cocks he sucked. He's very heterosexual, so this is important. And the third reason is, it really turns me on watching my slave get a cock shoved into his mouth and made to suck on it while he's so helpless.

When my date's cock is hard as a rock I call him over to suck me off, and then make love to me. I usually have multiple orgasms.

My love life has been fabulous since making my unfaithful husband my slave and believe it, our marriage is much more secure and happier because of it.

One more last suggestion to other mistresses. When it is your time of the month, also make your slave wear a tampax up his ass. If he is going to be a feminized whimp, let them feel some of the discomforts we must go through life with.

Keep up the good work.

Laura

MORE MEN BECOME SLAVES

AND LEARN WHAT ITS LIKE TO BE TREATED AS A WOMEN.

Dear Lee,

I am writing to tell you how your publications have helped to bring my husband and I closer together, and to also praise the many, many women today who are making their husbands and lovers slaves to them for life. Many magazines are now carrying articles about this new phenomenon. Even such magazines as Cosmopolitan,Penthouse, MS and many others are writing about the new 85 women who have the ability to enslave their man to them for life, yet are able to lead a free sexually fulfilled life.

Last year over 20,000 women had their man pierced and chastized. Seventy-five percent of the number also were feminized and made full fledged slaves. In 1985 over 100,000 men will submit to penis and nipple piercing for the woman they love. If the trend continues as predicted, in less than two years over one million men will become enslaved to their mistress or the one they love. Do you realize what this means? It means that there will be one million less men out there dicking everything in sight. It will mean that one million men think enough of their love or mate to submit to enslavement for life to a woman they love and care enough for. It means that one million women have the courage and ability to enslave a man for eternity. It means that one million women have the love and devotion of their man to have them submit to this just for them. It means that one million men will find out what it's like to be treated as women have for years. It means that women can now go out and get their sexual needs as men do, but still have someone at home who loves them and takes care of all their needs. It means security and a lifetime of love and devotion. It means one million less devorces, no fights over custody of children, no abuse and no arguments. It means more peace in the world.

Let us hope that this new fad or craze will last and that there are enough women who will take advantage of this craze. I believe it will if more women learn of it and read the many magazines that are now realizing that slavery for men is here. Even Cosmopolitan had a recent article on men submitting to total slavery, piercing and feminization for their lovers. It even gets into detail on how many women are enslaving the men they love, but getting their sex elsewhere.

I have found more love in my husband since I have made him my full slave. My life is far better than it ever was. My sexual escapades with other men just for sexual pleasure. When I want sex, I go out for just that. No long term relationships, just sex. I go dancing once or twice a week and if I find someone who turns me on, I do it, but never more than once or twice with the same person. I have my slave at home for love and a long relationship. Plus I have the fun and pleasure of humiliating my slave each time I do go out. In this way, I find out my slave's devotion and love to me, no matter what I do, the more I humiliate him, the more I know how much my slave cares for me. Plus I get other sexual needs from slaves even though he can no longer have sex. The more I feminize him, the more marks on his body, the more I discipline him, the more I make him slave, the less chance he will ever even look at another let alone show his body. The more I enslave him the more he loves me because his body and mind have been enslaved to me.

A woman can never know true deep love and emotion until she enslaves the one she wants to spend her life with. It takes a deep love for a man to commit himself to one woman for the rest of his life. It takes a very understanding man to chastize himself to one woman for life while she is free to have sex with others. It shows ultimate love and devotion, especially when he is humiliated when you do have sex with other men. And expecially when you tell him about the big cocks you suck, and you get screwed by. Especially when you bind him at your feet and he tells you he loves you no matter what you do. This is the true test of your man's love for you. Before you go to these extremes, be sure you have made him into a very submissive slave. This is accomplished by continual disipline, bondage, feminization, piercing, tattoos and other demasculating things. If he endures this for you, you'll know he loves you more than anything else in the world, even sex.

The question is, are you woman enough to have a man that will enslave himself to you forever? Or are you just one of the mill, mousey women?

I have enclosed a photo per your request. As you can see by the photo, my slave has been completely turned into my slave. He has been feminized with hormones, shaved bodily, pierced and tattooed.

Love,
Patti

MAN TATTOOED AND PIERCED FOR LIFE —

Dear Centurains,

Enclosed you will find a photo of my now-feminine slave as per your request for photos. Over the last year he has been made a slave through hormones, piercing, feminization and tattooing. Every night, after our childern are in bed, he is to come to me clean shaven from head to foot and dressed in his finest ladies clothes, with make-up, polish...in full femme, to serve me in any way I choose. He must look very feminine, as I do not like to see him only half-way feminized. There is nothing worse than looking at a man in half-drag with hair all over his body. My slave must look like a woman in all aspects. As you can see by the photograph, he makes a very nice looking femme. He must never appear before me unless he is fully femmed. If he does not adhere to every detail, he is severely punished.

Because he can no longer have sexual intercourse, I get much more personal sexual satisfaction. I personally enjoy cunnilingus and having him go down on me when he's fully femmed. He must have lipstick on when he goes down on me because for some reason his lips seem to caress and suck me more smoothly and a lot less wetly when he has lipstick on. I love the feel of his smooth femmed body as I hold his head between my thighs.

Before I make him go down on me, I make him rub and caress every inch of my body until I'm so excited I can hardly stand it. Then I pull his face between my legs and guide him to slowly and sensuously suck the lips of my pussy and clitoris untill I come in ecstasy and have multiple orgasms.

My slave is made to satisfy and care for my body but never to have sex himself. All his attention is now centerd on satisfying me. Knowing that he cannot have sex lets him devote all his attention to fully satisfying me.

It drives him mad seeing my nude body, touching it, caressing it, satisfying it, but not being able to indulge himself. This just makes it more enjoyable for me. Sometimes I make him caress me while he is nude except for high heels and a little make-up, because I enjoy looking at his smooth, shaved body and small pierced brests and especially like seeing the pierced ring in his penis, knowing that he cannot have sex and seeing the pain he goes through when he gets hard. Sometimes I put my finger through the ring and caress his penis just enough to make him excited, and then tell him he can no longer have sex. It excites me to see him want me and not be able to do anything.

The other night, I bound him up and started to run my hand all over his body. I pulled lightly on the rings piercing his nipples, then ran my hands down to his pierced penis. I slowly tugged on his penis ring, at the same time caressing his penis so lightly. When I had him squirming in pain and aroused to the highest heights without being able to do anything about it, I told him I needed a penis inside me and that I needed sex from a man who could do something about it. I told him I was going out to do so, and that I'd be back late to untie him, after I'd had a real man's penis. I left him this way, in pain from the ring indented in his hard penis and had him squirming because he needed sex so badly. When he got hard, he'd go soft because of the pain, then get hard again, and so on. He was in misery, and I loved it.

I left him this way , and went out, and yes, I did find a man, and I let him have me. The whole idea of my slave bound at home in misery, wanting to have sex with me while I was out getting love from another man excites me like never before. Just the mere thought of this nearly makes me have an orgasm.

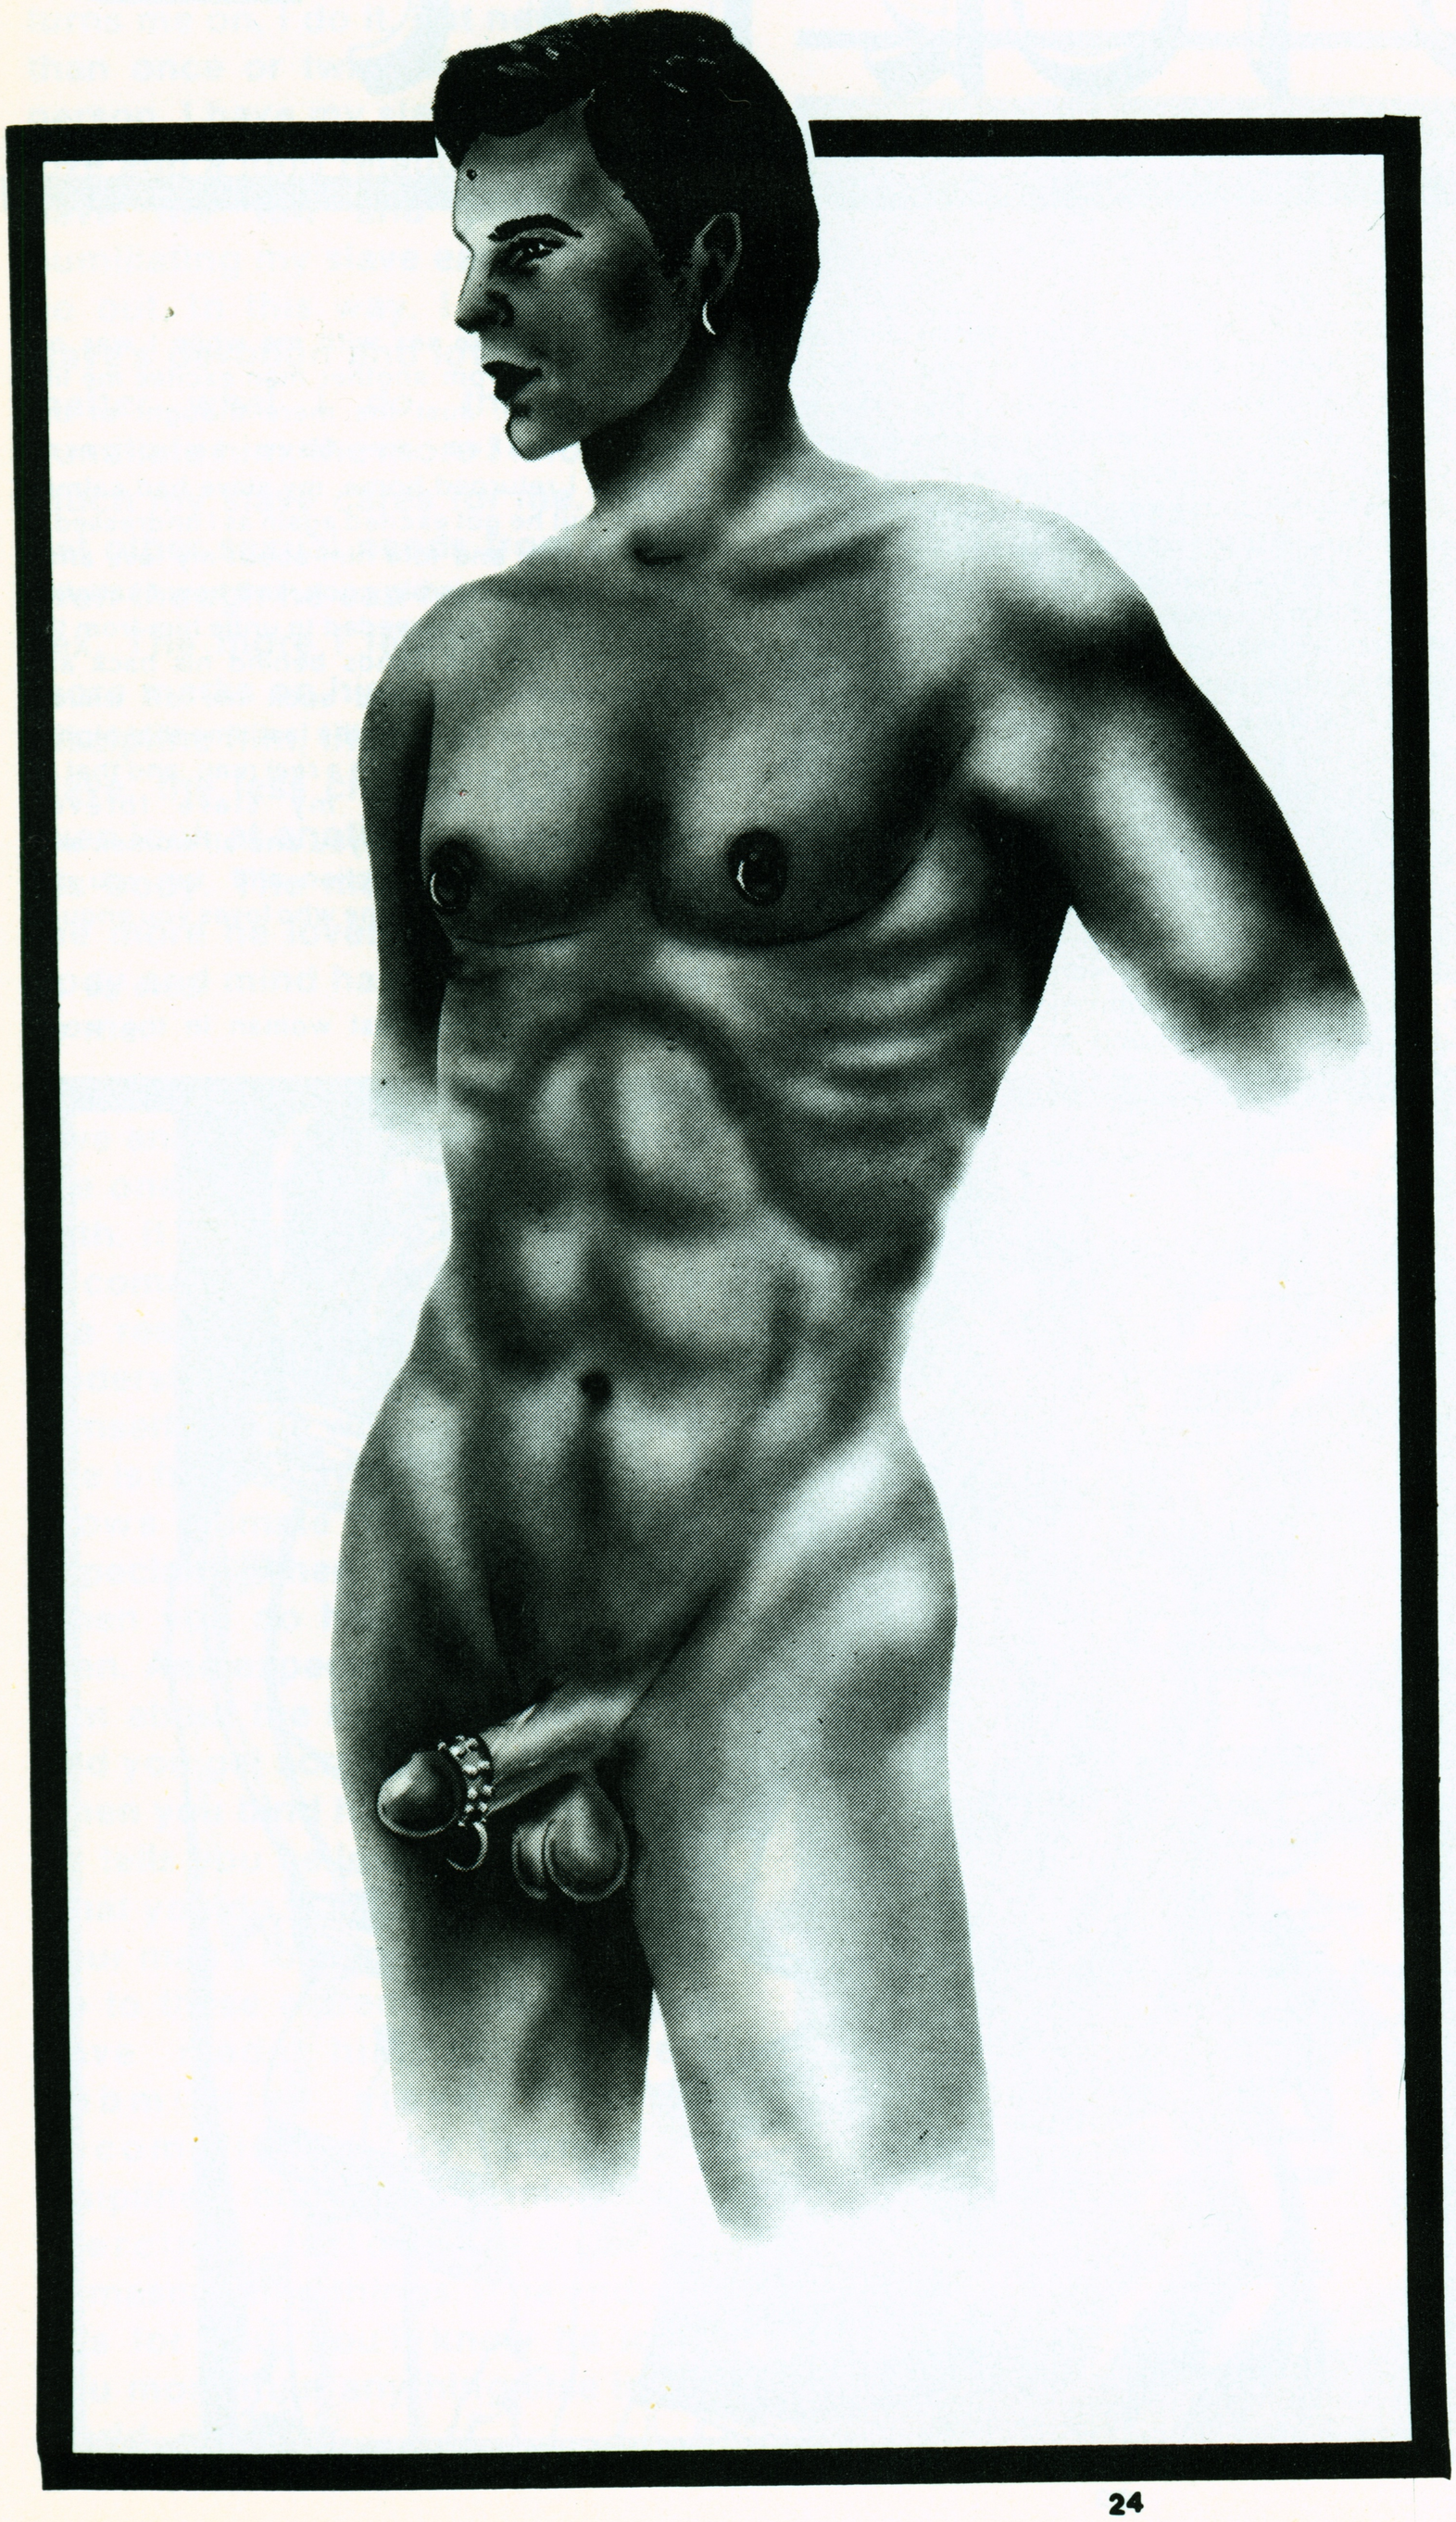
When I returned home, my slave had calmed down, but he got excited again as I undressed in front of him and told him about my love affair and how I ate this big cock, and how I satisfied another man. I proceeded to untie him from the bed and tied his hands behind his back and made him satisfy and suck me off while I climaxed in ecstacy for the last time that night. I told him how it was with a real man, and that he would have to be my slave forever.

I cannot begin to tell you and all women who read this what satisfaction and fun you can have if you find someone who loves you enough to become your slave.

Love to all,

From the happiest woman in the world

Woman Makes Husband Slave and Becomes Horney for Others



Dear Centurians

Ever since i had my husband go in for the operation on his penis to have the metel chasity band pierced on permanently my sex life has changed dramatically for the better. I do all the things with others I never felt free to do with husband.

The more of a slave my husband becomes, the hornier I become for others. All my slave can do now is lick my boots and cum off me from other men.

I tell him how I suck other men cocks and how other men satisfy me with their tongues and how much better they are than he ever was.

I told you in my last letter how I turned him into a female slave to do all my bidding. His body is half man and half woman now and he can never again feel the pleasures of another woman or an orgasim of any kind. He is my slave forever, to do with as I want.

I love to bind him up and tell him of my affairs with others and what he can no longer do.

I make him kneel at my feet and lick my boots before I go out at night, and make him tell me what a whimp he is and how much he loves me. I get excited when he does this and prepares me for my night out at a singles club.

I have sex a lot more than I ever used to. Some weeks every night, even twice a day sometimes. I'm constantly turned on now which I never used to be. I have become very dominant over my slave and humiliate him in every manner imaginable which excites me when I see him helpless and femmed, because then I feel I can do anything I want, not only to my slave, but have all the affairs and sex I want with whom ever I choose.

I read more often now of how more and more women are freeing themselves and taking a slave. I wish I would have done this years ago. It has made my life a lot easier and a lot less worrysome. I now know I have a faithful husband, a slave, a free sex life, and a lot more contentment and peace of mind.

SLAVE FORCED INTO KNICKER & PETTICOAT TRAINING

Dear Slave Training,

I am writing per your request in Slave Training.

There are a few humiliations and disciplinary measurements I enjoy using on my slave.

If you want to really discipline your slave, after you bind him up good and tight, command him to close his eyes. Then pull out a roll of heavy duty two-inch tape and cut off 2" strips and tape his eyelids closed. In this way he cannot see to try and get loose and it will leave him totally helpless and in the dark. If you really want to get mean, after you tape his eyes, put ear plugs in his ears and tape those into his ears. This will deprive him of his two major senses, sight and sound. Then if you really want to, you can lace on a discipline helmet. Your slave will do whatever you ask.

Humiliation of your slave is very important. I use many different types on my slave depending on how I feel or what he did or didn't do.

On that I use is very effective and also humiliating when he has not done something I have requested him to do. I make him set his hair in curlers overnight. I tie him down overnight so he cannot get them out and in the morning his hair comes out very feminine.

My slave is kept shaved at all times and I find that petticoat and knicker discipline and humiliation works. He must wear very lacy petticoats or knickers or both whenever I command. He also must wear lacy anklets. I enjoy pulling down his knickers and spanking his bare bottom until it's a nice scarlet red. All this keeps him in his place and makes him realize he is only a slave to do with as I wish.

It is very embarassing for him to have to go to work in the morning with a feminine hairdo and those bulky lace knickers and anklets under his clothing.

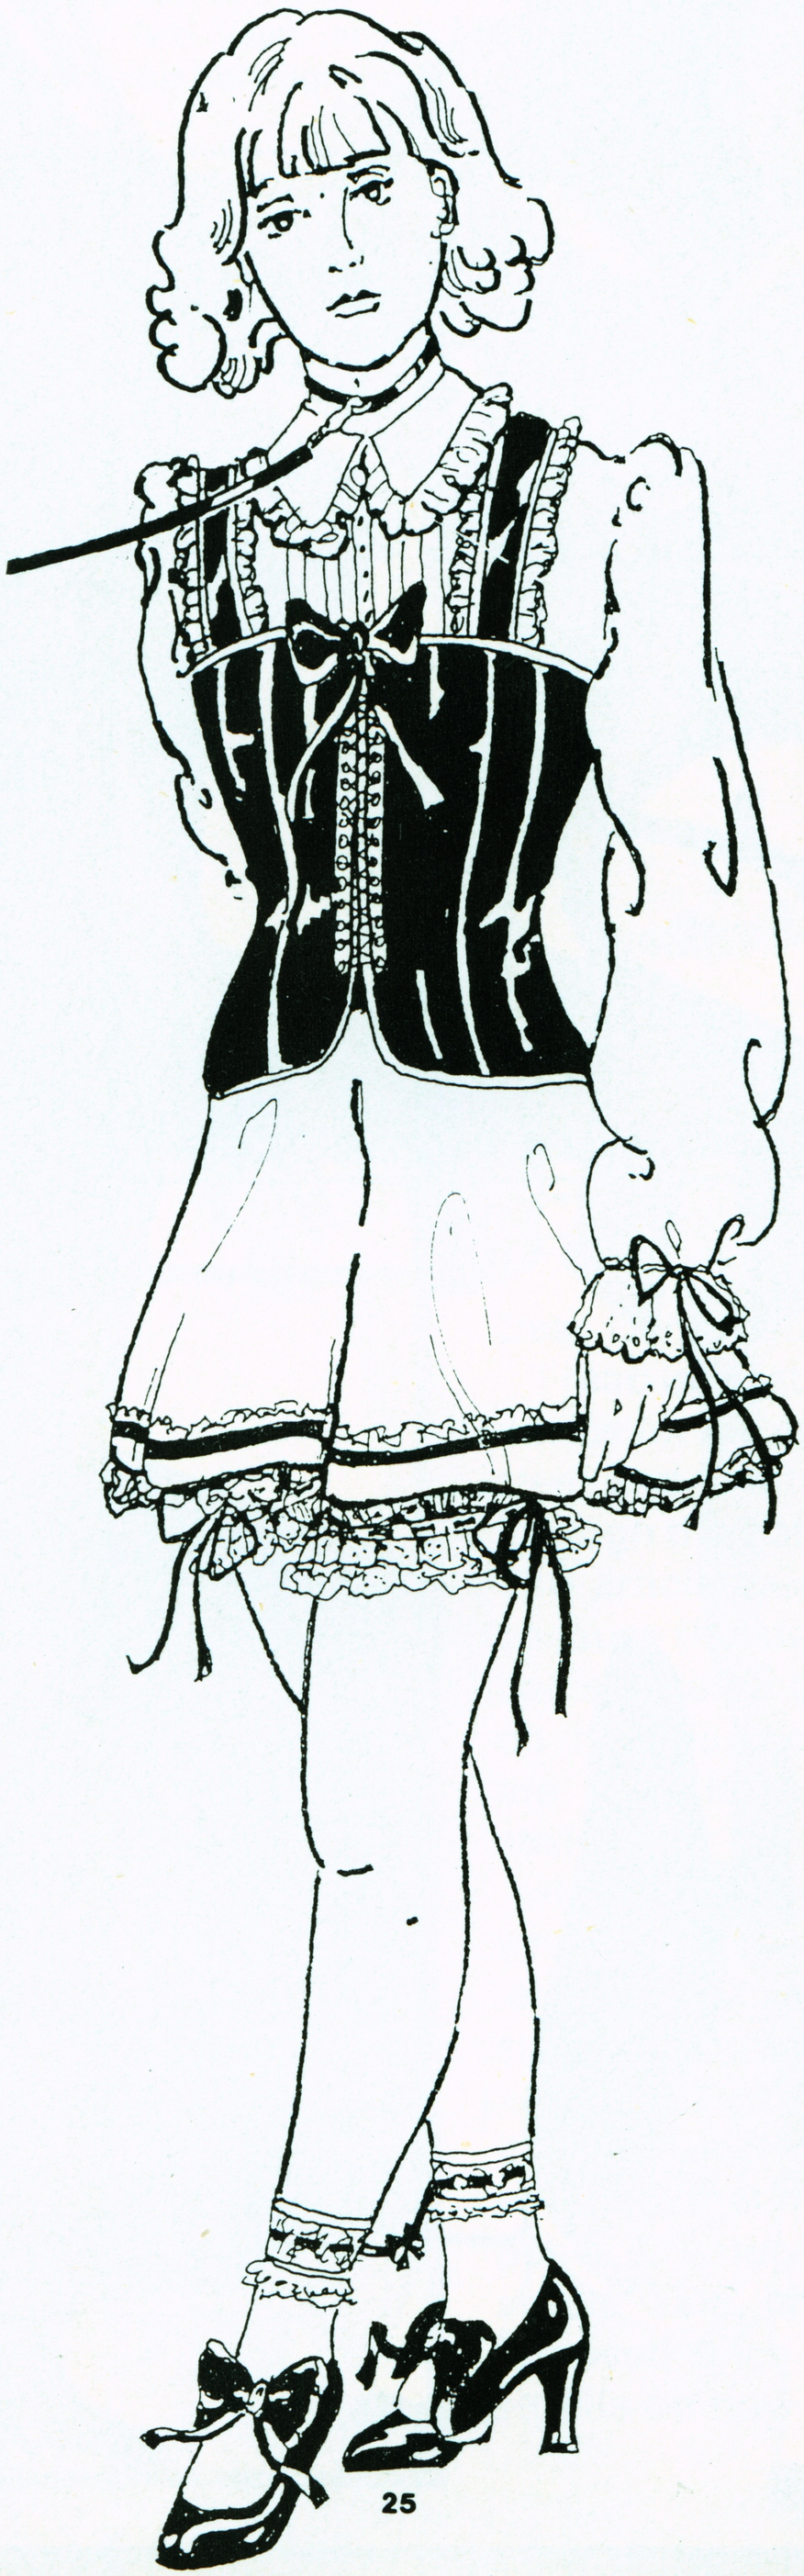
This week I am taking him to get his ears pierced. I've already bought a few different pair of earrings I'll enjoy forcing him to wear.

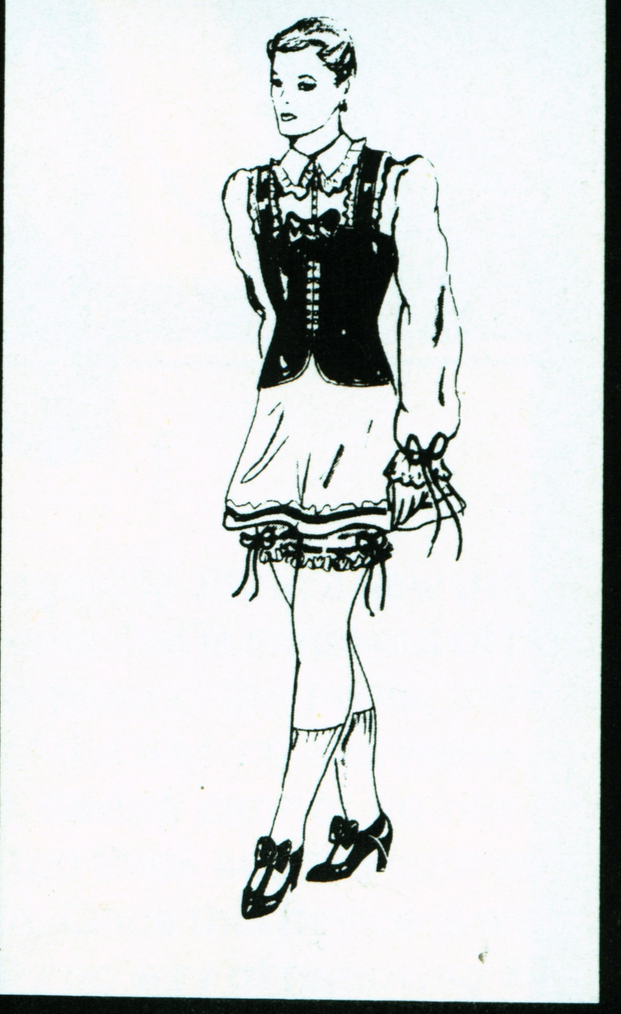
We have discussed getting his penis and nipples pierced, but he has balked at this evertime I bring it up. But we shall see.

He is already on daily estrogen which we had to make a special trip to Mexico for.

I hope I have given your women readers food for humiliation and discipline.

Love to all,
Bret





Dear Slave Training Editor,

I am very glad to hear that there are more women that train their men besides myself. The more issues I read of your Slave Training magazine, the more I realize that women are starting to wise up.

For centuries women have had to endure the narrow minded attitudes that women were inferior to men. But things have been changing to the benefit of all. Women have been proving to their men that they are in control of more things than the household duties.

I have taught my man just that. He has been trained to respect me and serve me as his superior. I would like to see a lot more women train their men the way I have. This whole world would be a lot better off.

I have a great deal of respect for any woman who can dominate and control their man. To make him serve and obey their every whim. Just like men used to demand from women. It takes a special woman with imagination, a strong mind, foresight, intelligence and power to train men into what women used to be. It is time for the tables to be turned; let men experience the humiliation that women have for so many years. Let them enjoy what women were told to for so long.

Over the centuries women have been subjected to being chastised to keep them pure or as punishment. I have read that it sometimes still goes on today. But I have made sure that I have done my share to change that. I have used a simple method to chastise my slave. I have pierced him in his penis & testicles.

Piercing is very effective by causing a great deal of pain to the male if he starts to get hard. My slave cannot take his rings off, only I can. And I feel very happy and secure always knowing this.

I have my slave trained to do nothing but please me. I will make him orally satisfy me for hours at a time. Just to make him beg for more when I make him stop pleases me.

But there are times that I can not be satisfied enough and I get very angry with him. So I will take him someplace and humiliate him so that he knows to try harder next time. Yesterday I took him to the park and walked him like a dog. And then when we got back home I put him on the front porch and made him eat his dinner out of a dog dish.

I hope that more women will find the strength to change their lives for the better the way that I have. Once they do find this new way of life, they will also realize that the domination of men by women is the way it always should have been.

Keep up the good work by supplying the women of today with your great publication. I know that this will definately help.

Love to all,
Robin

Dear Slave Magazine,

I have enclosed a photo of my slave, which I hereby give permission to publish in your Centaur publications.

My slave is kept shaved at all times. During the day he is made to wear lingerie and corsets under his clothes. He can wear only unisex clothes and women's shoes no matter where he goes. He has been taking hormones for over two years and I keep him in constant bondage.

When he serves me, his body must be clean of all hair and he is to wear lingerie and look and smell very feminine, as in the photograph.

We are both very happy with our arrangement. I would like to tell other women that having a slave who you know isn't running around and will do anything you command is very important.

Love to all,
Cara

Dear Centurians,

I read in Hustler magazine about a new piercing device for the male penis that is made out of heavy steel and is attached around the penis, piercing through the bottom of the frenum and welded on. The article said this device cannot be removed because the steel is too thick and the connecting bar is covered by skin. Once this device is welded on, there is absolutely no way of removing it, and the male is rendered completely helpless and sexless for the rest of his life.

If you can get this device for me, I'll pay whatever it costs. If there is such a thing, please let me know immediately so I can get it for my slave as soon as possible. My slave already has piercing rings through his penis and nipples, but if there is such a thing as described in Hustler, it is essential that my slave have one welded onto his penis. The ring could be cut off; but from what the article said, this new device could never be removed once welded on. Please send me any details on how to obtain this device.

SLAVE GROWS BREASTS THRU HORMONE TREATMENT—BODY PIERCED AND TATTOOED BY MISTRESS.

Dear Centurians,

I am writing to tell all of your women readers how to make their men into everlasting slaves the same way I have done mine. Please publish my letter so all women will know how easy it can be.

After he tells you how much he loves you and says he'll do anything for you, the next step is to tell him you'd like him to prove it by being your slave for the rest of his life. If he loves you like he says he does, he will. If he won't, you'll know you can't trust him.

If he will, first have him shave all the hair off his body except his head. This means legs, chest, and even under his arms. If you wish, even around his pecker. Make him keep clean shaven until you wish otherwise.

This does many things to your benifit. He won't want anyone to see his body because he'll feel naked. You might find, (as I did), that he will be much cleaner to sight & touch, as well as more docile to be with and nice to lay next to without being stabbed and pricked to death by hair stubbles.

Second, take him to a tattoo parlor and have your name engraved in one or two places on his body. (I had "Connie's Slave" tattooed on his butt cheek). This will mark his body for life as your property only.

Third, take him down and get his ears pierced. There are several good reasons for this. One, you can make him wear pierced studs with your initials, any type you want. You can have permanent rings and/or studs if you wish. Sometimes my slave can't wear earrings because of his work, so I have not put permanent earrings in his ears. His pierced ears don't show unless I make him wear earrings. Another reason is when you have him in bondage, you can put hoops in his ears and attach chains so he won't dare move his head.

The most important reason for having his ears pierced is to find out if he is allegic to any metals such as silver, gold, platinum or stainless steel. This will lead the way to the ultimate slavery by piercing his nipples and penis. My slave had an allergic reaction to stainless steel and his ears kept getting infected, so I changed to platinum posts, and they held up real well.

Fourth, you take him down to a specialist and have permanent large solid rings put through his penis just behind the head on the bottom as well as through both of his nipples.

I am sure there is no need to explain the reasons behind this, as there are many. He can no longer have sex. He can't even masterbate.

The piercing of his nipples is essential. He now has a constant reminder that he must wear for the rest of his life, that he is your slave only. It is a humiliation that he is a slave to do all your bidding. No matter where he is, he will always feel them and think of you.

For his punishment with bondage his piercings are perfect for connecting chains so he cannot move. You can put fishing weights on them when you want to torture him for being bad. And when you have him stand nude in front of you with his hands behind his back, you see studs permanently attached to his nipples. If you are at all like me, it will turn you on knowing he is your very own slave to do with as you want. I find it very sexy.

Back in the pirate days, many pirates had their nipples adorned with piercings. Nipple piercing is not new. Many cultures have done this for years.

Fifth, the last and final deed: Premium, a female hormone, has been proven to be the safest female hormone if taken only once a day and not misused in overdoses.

Go to Mexico, go into any pharmacy and ask for Premium. And this, of course, you give to your slave once a day. It is advisable to give this to him once a day for six months then stop for a month. Then continue for another three months and stop for another month, and continue like this as long as you want, and your slave will not have any aftereffects except, of course, to become more feminine. Why should you give your slave hormones, you ask ? The reasons, again, are numerous. He will become more gentle, he will start to learn what it is like to be a little feminine, to endure humiliation, and his nipples will start to get larger for easier holding of the piercings. His breasts will grow larger for the ultimate humiliation (he would never dare expose his body,) It will make your slave realize what women have gone through for years. Every man should have to find out what it feels like to go through life as a woman, mentally and physically. It makes them a much more understanding person.

This is what has been described in many magazines this past year as the complete slavery of the male species. This is what I did to my husband after nineteen years of marriage. And let me tell you, it has made a tremendous change in our marriage for the better.

Our marriage had become a dreary joke. There was no excitement left. He had hit middle age, and I suspected that he was messing around. I was not happy, our love for each other had dwindled to practically nothing. But now all of that has changed. We are both very happy. He has proven to me that he loves me, and I love him. we now love each other more and deeper than we ever had before.

We need your photos and stories, with permission to publish them. Please send to:

Seriously, I have never been so turned on. I love to tie his hands behind his back while he is totally nude, then torture and humiliate him. He makes a beautiful sight, his clean shaven smooth body, his pierced nipples and small breasts, his heavy ring pierced through his penis, and all topped off by my name tattoed on his behind. I will not go into all the things I do to him, but it does turn me on to tie him to the bedpost and attach connecting chains to all of his rings and just look at him. I usually then let him down to kiss my feet and other parts of my body until I climax. It turns me on knowing he cannot have sex and all his attention has been transferred to satisfying me.

As I write this, I have him bound up for the night in one of your armbinders behind his back and attached a lock on the ring on the end of the armbinders to the pierced ring on the end of his pecker. He dare not move. I know this is not the proper way to tie down a slave for overnight, but he did not kiss my private parts the way he'd been taught. And he talked back to me this afternoon. So he must suffer and learn to be obedient.

Love to all,
Ms. Connie

SLAVE MADE TO SUCK COCK OF LOVER, THEN LICK MISTRESS PUSSY.

Dear Centurians,

I am writing to tell you of my experience with my husband who is now my complete and devoted slave. A year ago I only knew a little about the B&D scene. Now I read your publications constantly. Your magazines and catalogs are very informative to those of us who must learn how to control our slave.

About a year ago I found out my husband had been fooling around. This nearly killed me and I was heartbroken that he would do this to me. It took me nearly a month to come out of it and when I did I was mad as hell. I had read a few things on bondage, but after this I read everything I could get my hands on. I not only wanted to get even, I wanted him to PAY for what he did to me.

I let him come back on one condition: He become my slave. He had a lot to lose if he didn't, so he agreed. I told him I'd take him for everything he owned -- including our children -- who I assured him I'd get custody of.

To try and cover the last year is rough. I wanted his penis pierced. To do this, as you know, he had to have his ear pierced to find out if there would be any infection before piercing his penis. After a month of no infection I took him to get his pee pee pierced with a large solid gold ring. At the same time I had them pierce his baby nipples with gold rings.

I was given the name of the female hormones he was supposed to take so his penis would only become half erect so that his penis would heal with the ring embedded. The next day we went to Mexico to buy the hormones.

I made him shave all the hair on his body, his chest, arms, legs, underarms and even around his pee pee. What a pathetic sight he made. No body hair and a large ring in his pee pee. Now I was ready to get even. I wanted to humiliate him so bad he'd never forget.

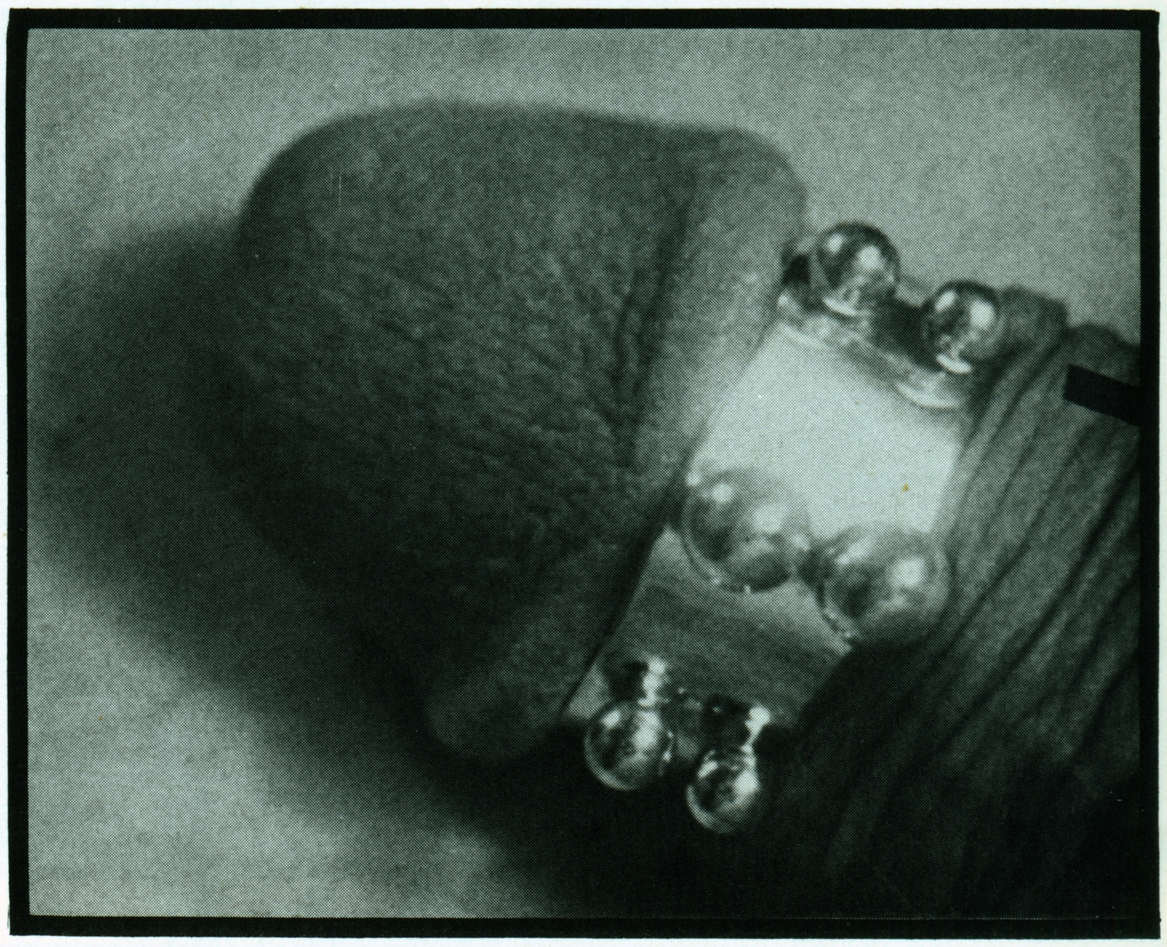
I started dating other men. I'd bind him up while I'd go out, then rub my pussy in his face when I'd get home. I'd tell him he was a miserable pathetic slave who couldn't screw a thing.

For the last few months I have been concentrating on completely feminizing him. I want him to know what it's like to be a woman. To be humiliated, told what to do, looked at as a second class citizen. He is made to wear an up-lift bra, satin panties, nylons and toe nail polish 24 hours a day. Twelve hours a day I lace him into a very heavily boned corset. At night I bind him down and tie on high heeled shoes. When I'm having my period, he is made to keep a tampax up his ass. He is allowed now to wear only unisex clothing. Instead of buying him a men's suit he gets a women's suit. Instead of men's shoes, we buy him women's that resemble men's. For business he passes as a man, but we both know, and this in itself is a humiliation because he's a stockbroker. He no longer goes to the lunches, dinners and for cocktails like he used to.

One of the reasons I'm writing you this is last week I came up with the ultimate degradation. I've been dating various men lately. But my latest lover is Brad who I've been dating now for a month. I told him I had a slave. I didn't tell him if it was a man or woman. I explained that my slave would do anything I wanted. He seemed interested and of course wanted to know more. I don't think he believed me so I asked him if he wanted my slave to suck his cock before he made love to me. He didn't believe anyone would be that dominated to do such a thing. He asked if my slave was a man or a woman. I told him what did he care as long as he got his cock sucked. We made a date for the next night and I was supposed to bring my slave. I went home completely turned on by this idea. I had tied Bryan down to the bed before I left. When I got home I immediately had to sit on his face and have him eat my pussy and ass and lick up all of Brad's cum.

Now I have to tell you, Bryan is completely straight. He dislikes gays and everything they stand for. For him to suck another guy's cock would be the ultimate humiliation. And for me, the ultimate turn-on.

The next night I made him wear a pair of flat sandals with toe nail polish, a woman's pair of pants and a blouse. I didn't want Brad knowing if my slave was a man or a women. He would probably guess, but for the occasion I wanted him looking and smelling as much like a woman as possible so Brad wouldn't be turned off by a man.



I then taped Bryan's eyes closed with tape and put on a white helmet I got from the Centurians with a pony tail coming out of the back. I had put bright red lipstick on his lips (I like my slave wearing lipstick when he sucks my pussy because he doesn't slobber as much and it has kind of a sticking sensation which turns me on).

I told Bryan if he spoke one word for the next hour, I would tattoo my name on his face. One of the other reasons I put the helmet on is I didn't want Brad knowing who my slave was or what he looked like in case of business.

I then put Bryan into an armbinder behind his back. I slipped a coat over his shoulders and put a wig over the helmet so while driving him to Brad's he wouldn't look conspicuous. I attached a leash to the end of the ring on his pee pee and again warned him he'd better do whatever I asked and never utter a word, or else. By now Bryan was so well trained he wouldn't dare disobey me.

The night was marvelous. My slave was chained in the bedroom while Brad and I had a few drinks in his den and made out.

By the time we got to the bedroom I could tell Bryan was in pain from the armbinder. The helmet hid his face and all you could see was his red lips sticking out of the mouth opening.

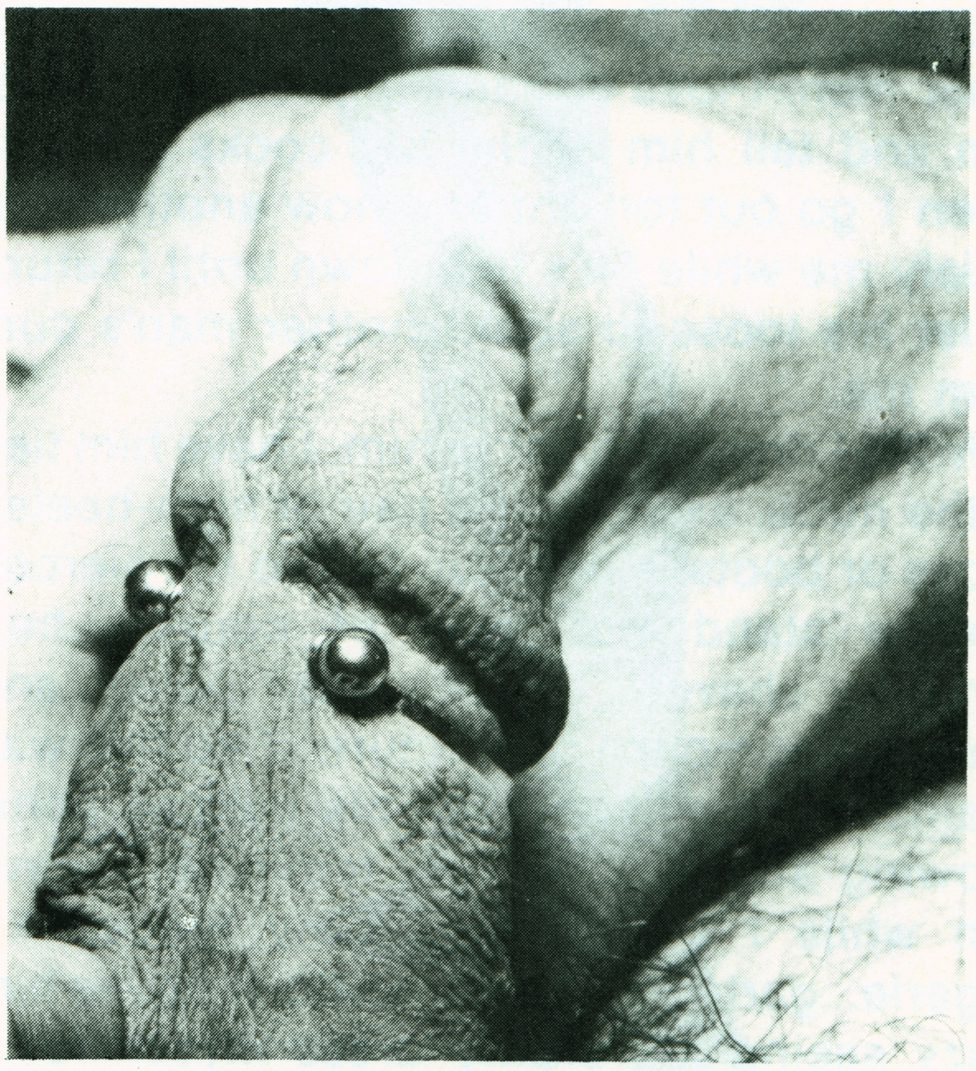
Brad and I made out on the bed for a while and then got undressed. Then I did it. . . . . I made my slave kneel down in front of Brad. He couldn't back away. I told Brad to stick his cock into my slave's mouth. I watched while Brad's cock went into my slave's mouth and grew bigger and bigger. I was so excited, I came while I watched. Here I was, having my slave suck off my boyfriend, so his cock would be giant when he entered me. This entire episode turned me on more than the actual love making. It turned me on that my husband who was once unfaithful to me had to not only suck my boyfriend's cock to get it ready for me, but then he had to listen to our lovemaking while he was chained to the foot of the bed. I knew the humiliation that he must be going through. But I knew also that he deserved it for being an asshole like most men are.

When we arrived home, I was still turned on, so I made Bryan suck my pussy and lick off Brad's cum. I came more that night than I had in a month's time.

Bryan was now crying and sobbing. I felt great. I made him tell me he loved me, then untied him for the rest of the night. Believe it, I've left him alone now for over a week with no discipline. Tomorrow we leave with out children for our two week vacation, but I have plans for him when we get back. I wanted to tell you at Centurians, to help spread the word that women no longer have to put up with their husband or boyfriends screwing around. Please publish my letter if you wish. The day has arrived for us women. We no longer have to look the other way. We can get even.

Nancy

P.S. I have enclosed a few photos of Bryan. Please put a dot over face when you publish. You can tell how I have changed him. This just turns me on more because he will never be able to screw anyone else, ever. Besides, it turns me on that he can't do anything and I can. He still gets hard and the ring makes it very painful. One of these days, maybe I'll cut his ring off. I understand that there is a lock that can be put through the hole. I'll have to look into that someday when I'm ready to let him have sex with me. But right now I'm having too much fun.



Panties Used As Gag On Bound Wimp Slave.

Dear Slave Training,

I am so glad that more women are finally taking control of their lives and making slaves out of their men. Thanks to your publication, we can all read about this progress of other women and the many methods in which they have made slaves of their cheating husbands and lovers.

I myself enjoy a rigorous sex life. I am not a nymphomaniac, but I do enjoy a lot of different men in my life. This has ben made possible by my taking control of my spouse and turning him into a wimpering slave who must obey me for the rest of his life. He has been chastized for over a year now with a steel loop pierced through his penis so that he can no longer have sexual intercourse or sexual release. He can only serve me. I have forced him to go through the many steps of slavery. The more I make him into the wimp he is, the more I enjoy sex with others and splashing it in his face that he can only lick my boots and the come from a real man. I tell him of the big cocks I suck and my escapades with other men. I love to flaunt myself in front of him and tell him of the big cocks I'll suck when I go out tonight and how another can satisfy me while he's tied down until I return to let his loose to suck another man's cum from me.

While I dress in front of him, I have him tied in the nude, except for a pair of high-heeled shoes or boots, a push-up bra so his pierced nipples stand out, and of course, he s carefully shaven. Lipstick, nail polish and make-up complete the picture Tied this way against the bed post with his pierced penis showing and looking very feminine. I leave him while I slowly put on my Frederick s lingerie...garter belt, nylons, etc. It drives him crazy seeing me slowly dress myself for a date with another man. Especially knowing I'm going out to get screwed by someone else when he can no longer have me

As I dress, I tell him what a wimp he is now. I tell him to look at himself. Who would want to make love to such a feminized wimp? I point to his pierced cock with the iron ring hanging through it and laugh at him, that others can have me anytime I want, but he never will again. And besides, I don't let wimps have me. I prefer real men.

Since he has been taking hormones, he gets harder more often which causes him excrutiating pain, especially when I dress in front of him. I have made him grow his hair long and keep it cut and styled in a very fashionable lady's wave. In public no one really notices, but when he's tied naked to the bed post with just enough make-up, with his nude, shaved body and small breasts, he looks like a woman except for his pierced penis. The more of a wimp I make him, the more he knows he will be my slave and not be able to have sex. And the more reason he and I both know I can have sexual affairs with others.

i love to wear my sexiest clothes when I bind him up to go out. My final touch, which drives him out of his mind, is to put on a pair of high-heeled shoes or boots and look as sexy as I can, not only to show my slave what he's missing, but also to turn on my date.

Because we have children, I don t go out until late at night, after they're in bed. I don't have to worry because we have a maid who will watch out for the children. She thinks my husband is sleeping, when in reality he's bound to the bed post until I get home.

When I get home, I usually sit on the bed and slowly undress in front of him, telling him in detail about how another man ate me out and how I sucked his big cock, and what a fantastic orgasm I had. When he sees me nude, undressing in front of him, he gets hard and then the pain he gets from the ring makes him go soft, then hard, then soft, driving him crazy wanting me. He's so horny because he's had no sexual release for over a year now. I tell him, "Poor baby, can't have any sex...but you can kiss my feet. And if you do a good job at that, I might even let youlick my pussy clean from a real man." Sometimes I'll let him do that if I'm in the mood, if not, I'll stuff my wet panties in his mouth and let him suck on them for the rest of the night. Because he hasn't had sex for so long, just the smell of my pussy on my panties drives him crazy.

I can't thank Centurians enough for letting me know all the pleasures that are to be had by having a slave to do all my bidding and also be able to fulfill all my sexual needs at the same time. I understand there is even a new device out that is pierced and welded around the penis that is much more permanent than just the ring. Can you please send me any information on this device? I read that once this metal device is put around the penis and welded, there is no way of removing it, that it can't even be cut off. If you have access to this device, I would like to purchase it from you because if it's true a slave can't remove it, I want one immediately for my slave. What I'm thinking of doing is cutting off the iron ring from my slave's penis to let him have sex with me for a week or two, for the last time. Then I would like to not only put the ring back on, but also this new device that will render him sexless forever to me. I want the ring back on in case I want to tether him to the bed post, plus using it for leading and bondage. My slave is kept in bondage every night. This makes him very submissive to me, and he will do whatever I request of him to be let loose.

I am self-employed in a top profession and work a lot of hours. It's very comforting to know that my slave is not running around on me while I'm busy working. This enables me to fulfill myself in my profession and sexually without worry. As for my slave, he has no choice but to be my slave and take care of my needs. My life is so much easier now. I never have to worry about things I used to.

Bye for now,
Mistress Debra

OPERATION RELEASE

It is understood by both parties, being Spartacus Inc. and NAME _____ that _____ has requested an operation to be performed on _____ penis to install permanently a metal frenum chastite devise that will be permanently secured by means of an operation and piercing of the Frenum on the bottom side of Penis just behind the head of the penis to install and permanently secure through heat welding Spartacus' FRENUM PENIS CHASTITY.

It is further understood by _____ that he understands that once this operation is completed that the FRENUM PENIS CHASTITY will not be able to be removed without possible mutilation of penis. And only by a professional doctor and hospital care for recovery. It is also understood that it is of a doctors opinion that partal castration is the only way of removing the Frenum Chastity once it has been permanently secured.

It is further understood by _____ that he will never be able to perform sexual intercourse, masterbation, or be able to have sexual relief once the Frenum Chastity is secured.

It is understood by Spartacus that anyone having this done has willingly agreed to become someone's property (Slave) or has agreed willingly to obstain from sex permanently. It is, therefore, requested by Spartacus, Inc. (unless your partner has also agreed to obstain from sexual intercourse) that:

A. Your SEX PARTNER, MASTER, MISTRESS, also sign this release knowing that _____ will no longer be able to have sex.

B. Above named _____ will sign paragraph "C" permitting your sex partner, master, mistress be permitted to seek sexual satisfaction elsewhere as you will no longer be able to perform the sex act through intercourse once the Frenum Chastity is attached. If your sex partner is active sexually, we request your signature to paragraph "C" so that there is no misunderstanding on the severity of the Frenum Chastity.

It is of our experience and understanding that most masters, mistresses, once their slave has had the Frenum Chastity attached, find sexual partners elsewhere while still having their slave to serve them in many other uses and ways. The above does not hold true in all cases if the slave satisfies his master/mistress orally or with sexual devices, but we have found this is the exception, for once the master/mistress desires a real penis, she will look elsewhere to fullfill her own needs.

SLAVE

C. I understand that once this operation is performed, I will no longer be able to have sex. I, therefore, give my partner, master, mistress, my consent to seek sexual satisfaction from others to whom she may be attracted.

Signed _____

SEX PARTNER, MASTER, MISTRESS

D. I have also read this contract, and all the procedures, and know all the consequences of this operation.

Cont'd

I, _____ , hereby give my signature as proof that I would like _____ to have this operation and _____ has willingly agreed to be my slave.

It is understood by my slave (check one):

_____ I will be sexually faithful.

_____ I will look for my own personal sexual satisfaction elsewhere.

Signed _____

PROCEDURE

The operation itself takes less than an hour and is done in our own laboratory.

First, a long hole is drilled through the skin, on bottom side of penis just behind the head. Antiseptics are used, but we cannot provide any kind of pain relievers, as we are not licensed for any drugs.

A stainless steel rod is then inserted through the long hole and welded on at both ends with a soft heat weld. (NOTE: This cannot be removed without a hot weld. A hot weld would give 3rd degree burn through the length of the penis and possible further up the body. It would be extremely painful and would undoubtedly put you in the hospital. It would cause severe damage, not only physically, but would leave scarring. Also, internal damage would be done because the steel rod through penis would become molded hot.)

The healing process then takes 8 to 12 weeks to heal around internal rod. At this point, it is still possible for us to remove rod in case of infection. No sex is possible.

When skin has healed around the internal stainless steel rod and there has been no infections, your final appointment is arranged to attach the large metal studded shield completely around and behind head of penis. This is welded on with a soft heat weld so that it will never come off. The metal studded shield will be form fitted tightly around penis so it cannot be cut off and the internal steel rod will then become impossible to reach because of the heavy metal shield.

You will then be chastised for life and a slave to your master/mistress.

When you come in for your first visit you will be measured for the studded metal chastity shield. You have a choice of us making it VERY tight, which would cause extreme pain when ever your penis enlarges, or we can fix it snug, but not real tight. The choice is yours or your master's.

I, _____ , have read all of the above and the procedures and still want this operation performed, knowing full well I will never again be able to perform the sex act.

Signed _____

THE REAL FACTS

Dear Reader: Please Read

A lot of what you have read is for reading enjoyment. The contract is for reading enjoyment and we put it into let your mate think the operation is really more serious then it really is. You can take a copy of it and show your mate and you both can have the excitement of signing it if you wish.

CHASTITY FRENUM SLAVE LOOP

First you have to have the barbell stud put on. This only takes about 5 minutes at most to pierce the foreskin. The barbell is left in with out removing it till healed which takes about 3 months. Then you can put on any of our chastity slave devices. The stud has a screw end to do this. Now--We don't, nor neither does the person we can send you too, weld it or solder it on permanently. You will have to do this yourself either by the soft solder you can buy in a tube which needs no heat or you can use a touch of porma glue. We of course can not recommend this.

With the purchase of any of our chastity slave loops we will include free the actual piercing and include the name, address and phone number of the best piercer in the world. He will do the percing free. An extra tip is always in order.

#FL2C FRENUM SLAVE LOOP

SLAVE LOOP

This item to be used to make sure your slave is chastized for you for the rest of his life. First, the loose skin on the under side of his penis is pierced just behind the head. The barbell is then inserted through the hole and a sterling silver fremun loop is squeezed around the penis behind the head and the barbell is attached.
This will keep your slave from screwing around on you, and from being able to have sex. NOTE: The steel barbell knob screws onto the shaft. To fasten permanently, use a permanent glue or welding cement on the screw.

SPECIAL DELUXE FRENUM LOOP: $149.00
BARBELL: $60.00

And if you really want to do your slave in...pierce another hole in his penis behind the head and attach a bead ring permanently through it. This way, you can attach a leash to the ring when you want to.
BEAD RING: $68.00

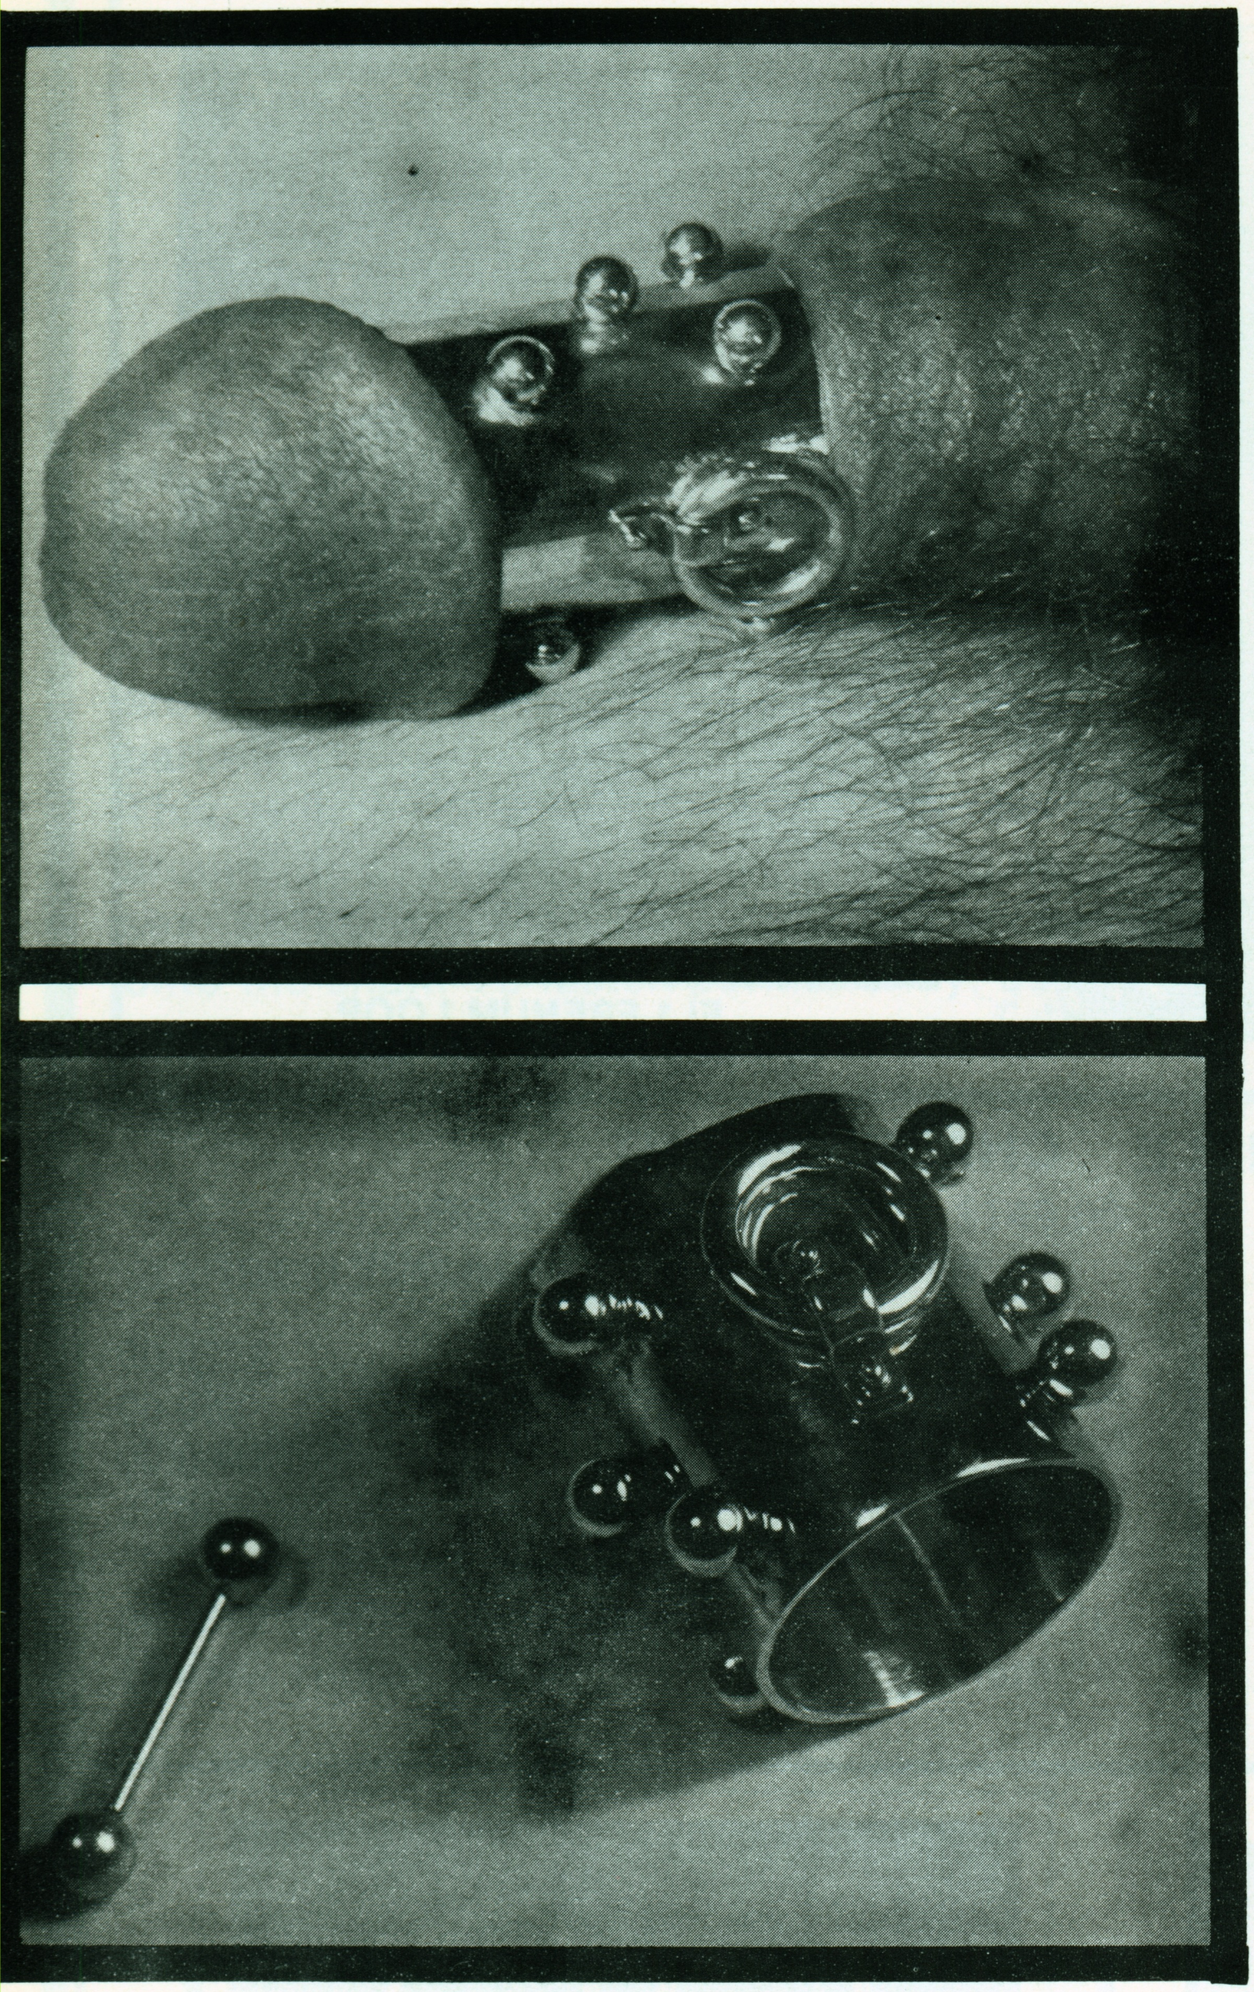
Jewelry for Pierced Nipples

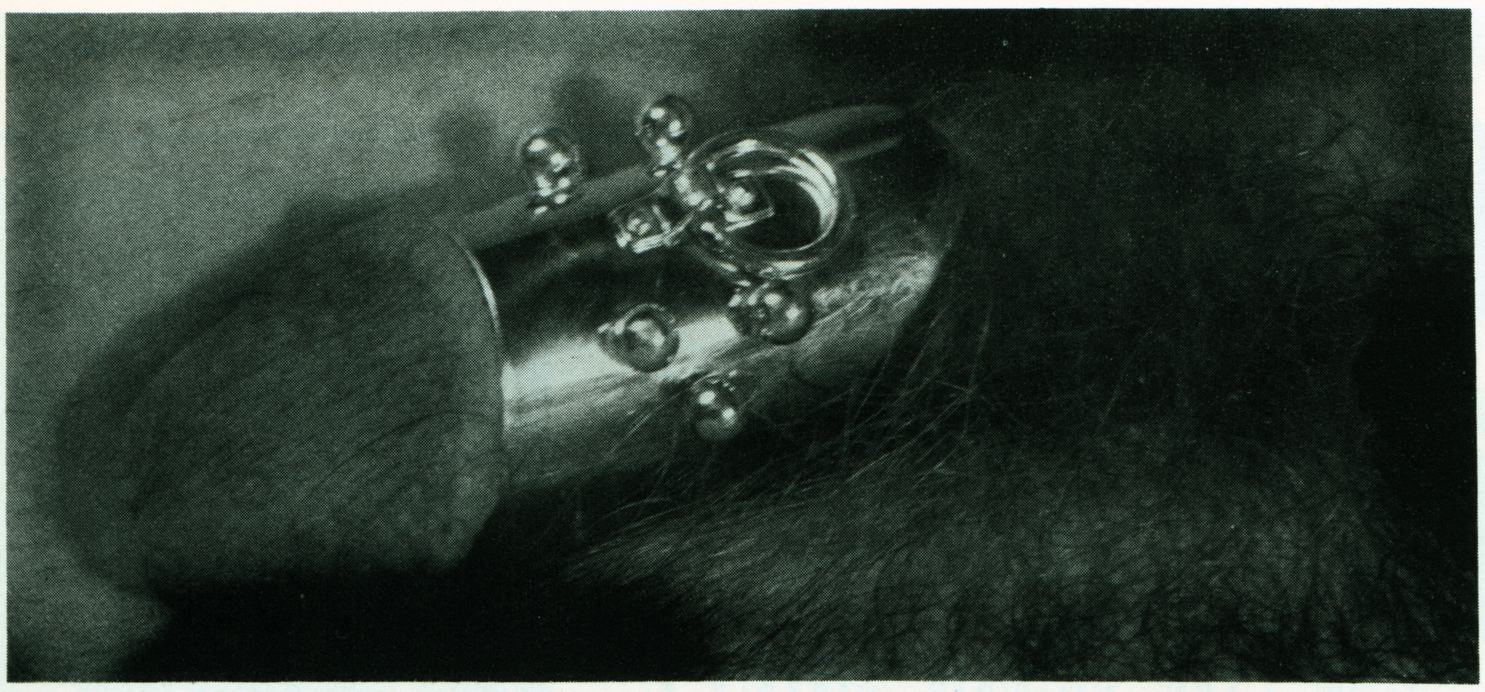
The Ultimate Male Chastity

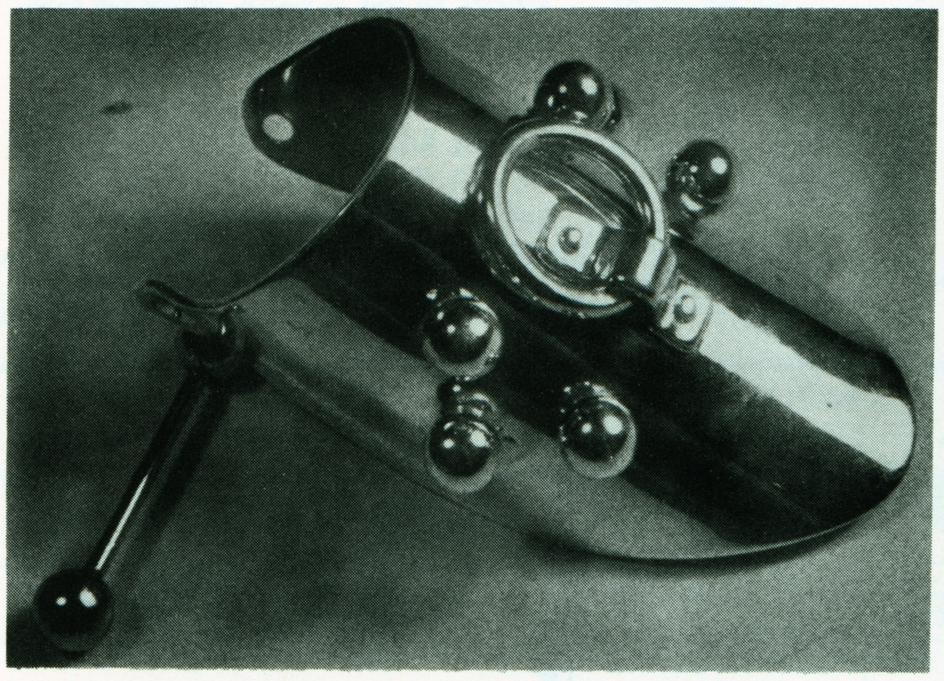


FL6S PERMANENT FRENUM CHASTITY

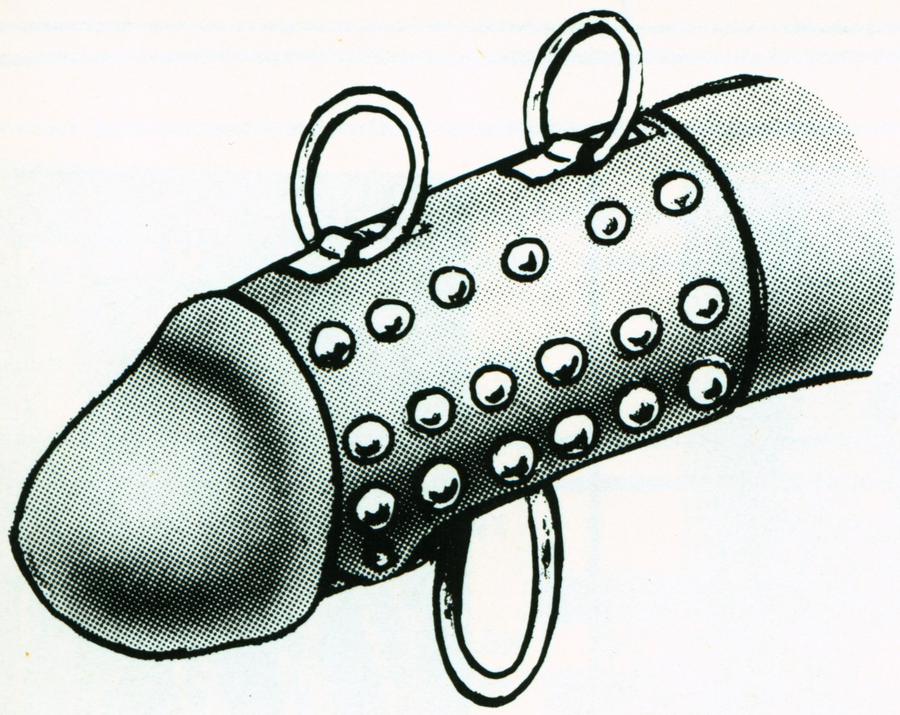
This one is really superb and very restricting. Its all tubular and solid all the way around. Penis has to be very soft when you finally secure your slave into this item for life. After stud is healed you stretch penis to fit and squeeze thru thick metal tube. Stud is then put thru one end of chastity, then thru piercing, thru other notch in chastity. To secure permanently use a perma glue on threading or a soft solder. YOU NOW HAVE A SLAVE FOR LIFE!!! $625.00 including barbell and piercing.

Chastity Devices

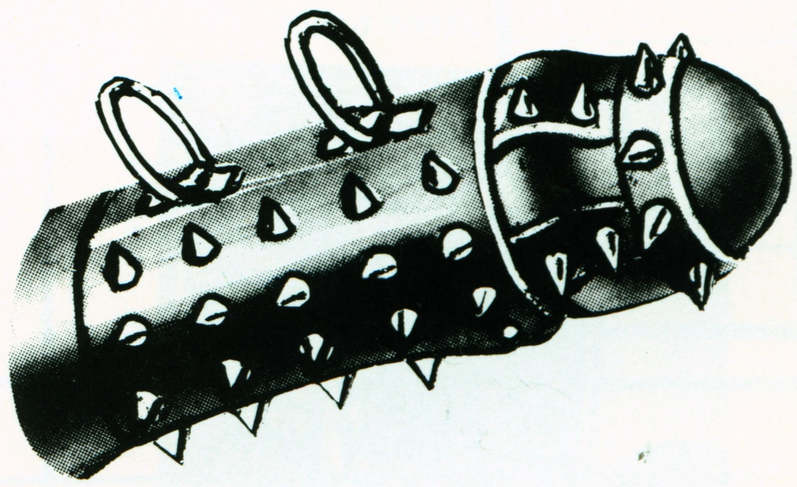




FL5B FRENUM PENIS CHASTITY SLAVE LOOP
1 3/4" inches long. Fits securely around shaft of penis and as others is pierced on behind head of penis. $475.00 including piercing and barbell stud. 'O' ring and metal studs.



FL7K PERMANENT FRENUM CHASTITY
For those of you who want your slave to know forever whose's the master. This chastity fits nearly the entire length of penis shaft and will keep penis from getting hard, but it will also cause pain if penis begins to get hard. A device that will deep your slave from ever having sex again. Comes with three '
'O' rings and studs around entire length. Similar to our no. FL6S because it is completely tubular and has to be slipped over penis then stud goes thru chastity and pierced penis. Please read REAL FACTS on page 43. $825.00 including barbell and address and phone number of where to get piercing done. NOTE: It takes approx. three months for piercing to heal before you can attach chastity.



NO. FL8J FRENUM CHASTITY
Well to be honest this is our artists concept. We don't know if it can really be made or not. Drawing show spikes instead of studs which we don't know yet if we can do spikes. Also we haven't figured out yet how to get penis into this device. All our other Frenum Chastities shown have actually been made and tested, but not this one. If we can do it, it will be a completely custom made item and will cost approx. $1200.00. We will let you know in our next issue if we work the kinks out of the design, and if we can manifacuture it. We also have some ideas for other designs not yet tested.
